(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)

Germany is advancing into Russia to restore the monarchy and the privileges of the land-owners and the capitalist classes, the Bolshevik government in Petrograd declares in a proclamation to the people and it calls upon them to resist the German armies and defend the republic "to the death."

All Russians must cooperate in the defense, the Bourgeois classes by compulsion if necessary, the official proclamation declares.

Petrograd has been declared in a state of siege. Explicit instructions are given the peasants and workers to take all measures to prevent valuable property from falling into the hands of the Germans. Railroad rolling stock and food supplies are particularly mentioned. Everything must be done, the people are adjured, to keep German militarism from crushing the working classes in Great Russia and the Ukraine.

The Bolshevik government again has changed its tactics and orders that opposition be given to the German army now sweeping eastward in the heart of Great Russia. All Russians are summoned to the defense of their country in a proclamation signed by Premier Lenin and Ensign Krylenko, commander-in-chief of the Bolshevik armies. Petrograd has been declared to be in a state of siege.

As the German army advances, the German navy is aiding in the campaign against Esthonia and Petrograd by investing Reval, the second in importance of the naval bases on the southern coast of the gulf of Finland.

German troops have been landed there and forty-five German warships are near the harbor. The Russian navy, however, probably will offer little resistance. It is reported as being completely disorganized, both as to equipment and morale. Removal of Russian warships at Reval and Helsingfors to Kronstadt is considered unlikely because they have been idle so long. In taking Minsk and Rovno and in pushing their campaign swiftly on other sections of the front the Germans have captured large quantities of war material, including more than 1,300 guns and 9,000 prisoners. Weight is given to reports that Foreign Minister Trotsky will resign by the fact that his name is missing from the proclamation ordering that.

TERRY MCGOVERN, A FORMER CHAMPION, DIES IN HOSPITAL

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Feb. 22.—Terry McGovern, former world's featherweight champion died at the King's county hospital at 9:15 this morning. He had been ill only two days.

Pneumonia and kidney trouble complicated with other ailments brought on the boxer's end within 48 hours from the time he was removed in an ambulance from his Brooklyn home to the hospital. His wife was with him when he died. They have one son, Joseph aged 19. McGovern was reputed to have earned several hundred thousand dollars during his fighting career. After his retirement from the ring he conducted saloons at various times and was frequently in institutions because of ill health. He was a free spender and his fortune had so diminished a few years ago that Samuel Harris, who was his manager at the height of his boxing success, raised a fund in McGovern's behalf. From this money Mrs. McGovern has received an income of $25 a week.

Joseph Terrence McGovern was born at Johnstown, Pa., March 3, 1880. His parents moved to Brooklyn a year later and Terry, as he was known to followers of pugilism, was brought up in the Gowanus district of Brooklyn, where he resided until his death.

When he was only 15 years old McGovern took part in preliminary bouts at the old Greenwood Athletic club where he did most of his training for the ring battles to come. His rushing tactics and heavy hitting power enabled him to score a succession of knockouts before he was seventeen. His phenomenal success soon earned him the sobriquet of "Terrible Terry."

Jan. 9, 1900, McGovern won the world's featherweight honors by knocking out George Dixon. Two years later, on Thanksgiving day, at Hartford, Conn., McGovern lost the title to Young Corbett, a Denver, who knocked the champion out in the second round.

THERE IS NOTHING UPPISH ABOUT FRANCE'S "TIGER" AT MEAT TIME

Premier Clemenceau (right) at the front.

Lunch time finds Premier Clemenceau, France's "Tiger," a very ordinary sort of a fellow. The photographer recently caught him with members of his military staff in the ruins of a French village just back of the lines. From the picture one could not tell whether he was rolling a cigaret or breaking a lady finger.

EASTERN STATES CONFRONTED WITH A FOOD SHORTAGE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 22.—The most critical food shortage in the history of the country confronts the eastern part of the United States today, according to Food Administrator Hoover.

In a statement issued last night the food administrator declared that reserve food stores are at the point of exhaustion in many sections and that the scarcity may continue for 60 days.

Railroad congestion is blamed for the situation by Mr. Hoover, who says the only solution is increased rail movement of foodstuffs even to the exclusion of many other commodities.

GREAT BEEF SAVING RESULTS FROM THE MEATLESS ORDER

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 22.—Meatless days in the United States have saved 140,000,000 pounds of beef in four months, the food administration announced today. During this period 165,000,000 pounds of beef were exported to the allies together with 400,000,000 pounds of pork products.

The figures were made public in a statement explaining why the food administration refused requests of cattle and sheep-growers to remove beef, mutton and lamb from the conservation rules with regard to meatless days.

Mutton and lamb are not exported and the food administration has removed the restriction on its consumption in some of the western states. The restriction will be lifted soon in many of the other western states in which large numbers of sheep and lambs are produced for meat. Food Administrator Hoover will recommend to state administrators that the people be permitted to eat all the mutton and lamb they want until after April 1, when the spring marketing season is about at an end.

HEAVY FIGHTING IS REPORTED ON THE WHOLE FRONT

(Associated Press Telegram)

Paris, Feb. 22.—Heavy artillery fighting on the whole front is reported in today's official announcement.

The statement follows: "Heavy artillery fighting occurred along the whole front, especially in the regions of the Forest of Union, Chevreux and the Calvario plateau (Aisne front). But to du Meuil (Thann front), and Hartmann's Wäldchen (Alsace). There was no infantry action."

WOMAN OFFERS HAIR TO THE GOVERNMENT

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 22.—Out of the many offers of personal sacrifice which reach the government one made known today attracted more than usual attention. It was an offer to the war department by Mrs. Bridget Quinn, of Conifer, Pa., to give her hair for use in the munition factories if the government needed them.

Secretary Baker wrote Mrs. Quinn a personal letter acknowledging her patriotism but saying such a sacrifice was not at all necessary. Evidently the woman had heard of the use of woman's hair for belting on munition machines in Germany.

BAKERS REDUCE BREAD PRICES AT CLEVELAND

(Associated Press Telegram)

Cleveland, Feb. 22.—Cleveland housewives today were enjoying a reduction in the price of bread.

Seven Cleveland bakeries, two of them with headquarters in New York, where prices here are said to be dictated, had reduced their prices after maintaining increased rates for four days in defiance of the government authorities. During the four-day period the consumer was forced to pay 1 and 2 cents per loaf above the former rate of 9 and 13 cents.

Whether or not the decrease will be permanent depends on the outcome of a hearing here this morning. At this hearing the county food administrator, presided over by State Food Administrator Croxton of Columbus, will consider figures presented by the bakers in support of their contention the increase is necessary.

In a hearing on Friday of last week the seven bakers declared the advance to be necessary, but presented only general statements in support of their contention.

County Food Administrator Bishop forbade the advance, but the seven bakers ignored the order. State Food Administrator Croxton after the raise had been made effective last Monday, ordered it abated pending a full and complete hearing. The bakers refused until yesterday to comply with the demand.

Food Administrator Croxton opened today's hearing with a statement that the food administration will not approve an advance in the price of bread until facts and figures are presented by the bakers to show that such an increase is justified.

"The administration must be shown that an increase is justified," said Croxton, "and not until facts and figures are submitted to me to substantiate your statements that an increase is necessary will I approve any advance in bread rates. You have taken an unfair advantage of the people of Cleveland by arbitrarily raising your prices. The customer should know why the prices are advanced, and they must know."

Attorney James Metzger, representing several of the bakeries, presented a chart at the hearing which, he asserted, will show that the raise was warranted. The cost of making and selling a loaf of bread in Cleveland has increased more than 32 per cent in two months, Metzger said.

J. E. Hagerty, assistant state food administrator, attended the hearing with Mr. Croxton. The seven bakeries represented at the hearing are the Ward Baking company, General Baking company, Julius Baking company, Star Baking company, Jacob Laub Baking company, J. Spang Bakery company and Emil Spang Bakery.

HOW MAGNANIMOUS OF THE EMPEROR!

Amsterdam, Feb. 22.—Emperor William, according to the Frankfurter Zeitung, replied to a message from the Lubeck senate, appealing to him to help the Estonians as follows: "Your words have found a lively echo in my heart. The despairing cry of distress which is ever more urgently reaching our ears from the Baltic country shall not go unheard. Effective measures must be taken to safeguard the tortured position the burning and plundering of robber borders and end the state of complete lawlessness."

CONGRESS OBSERVES DAY.
Washington, Feb. 22.—Congress today observed Washington's birthday anniversary in accordance with the time honored custom. Washington's farewell address was read in the senate by Senator Gerry of Rhode Island and in the House by Representative Aswell of Louisiana.

SELECTS WILL BE ASSIGNED TO DEPOT BRIGADE

8,000 Will Begin to Arrive
Camp Sherman During
Next Week

WILL KEEP LINE REGIMENTS
FILLED UP TO FULL QUOTA

Orders Issued Prohibiting Solicitation of Influence
By Officers

(Associated Press Telegram)

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, Feb. 22.—Incoming selects who are due here to the number of 8,000 beginning next week will be sent to the 158th depot brigade for their preliminary training, before being assigned definitely to one of the line regiments here, it was announced today. As a result of the new plan the depot brigade will begin to fulfill its true function of keeping the line regiments filled up, while the same process will prevent the regiments from being broken up by calls from the war department for men to be transferred to other camps, officers say.

Major Lawrence Whiting of the adjutant general's office at Washington is here to explain the plan and to devise ways and means of putting it into effect. Officers of the division expressed satisfaction over the possibility of the new scheme. The war strength of infantry regiments is 3,600, but as a result of the continued transfers of men here, the units are far below their required strength. Some of the companies here have been stripped of all their non-commissioned officers and other "indispensables," numbering as low as twenty men.

The new plan calls for all transferred men to be taken from the depot brigade, which officers say is really a clearing house for men, instead of wrecking organizations just when the men have been whipped into fighting shape. The depleted organizations will be required to make requisition for the men they need on the depot brigade through the war department. Officers predict that this arrangement will insure permanency of the personnel of the line regiments, and in the line of division, making more progress in its training.

The attention of all officers of the division was called to the orders prohibiting the solicitation of influence by officers of the army to secure any military result. The order states that no applications nor requests of any officers shall be sent except through regular military channels.

One officer from each company of infantry regiments has been detailed to take charge of the bayonet instruction in his unit. The bayonet work will be pushed rapidly, it is said.

JERICO TAKEN BY THE BRITISH; TROOPS ADVANCE

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Feb. 22.—The British have captured Jericho, in Palestine, the war office reports.

The city was entered by Australian troops yesterday. Little opposition was encountered. Subsequently the Australians established themselves on the line of the Jordan and the Wadi Auja.

The official statements report the continuation of bad weather. North and northwest of Jerusalem the British advanced positions were extended slightly and rendered secure.

During the fighting of Wednesday the casualties of the British troops were again slight.

Since the capture of Jerusalem the British have been pushing ahead steadily, striking out to the north and east. Official statements from London in the last few days have reported rapid progress, and apparently the Turks have offered no determined resistance.

Aside from its historical importance, in connection with the British plan to free the Holy Land from the domination of the Turks, the capture of Jericho is of little significance. It consists merely of a group of squalid hovels and a few shops with about 300 inhabitants. Its chief strategic value lies in the fact that it gives the British domination of the valley of Jordan, and also control of a network of highways radiating from the town. A further advance eastward of 25 miles, however, would take the British to the railway from Damascus to Mecca, which would cut off the Turks' line of communication, with Arabia and greatly assist the revolting Arab tribes which are co-operating with the British. Jericho is near the northern extremity of the Dead Sea, 14 miles northeast of Jerusalem.

The ancient Jericho, which was situated to the west of the modern Jericho, was a town of considerable size. It was the first Canaanite city to be reduced by the Israelites, the biblical story relates, encompassed in destruction by the blowing of trumpets.

BRITAIN'S NEW ARMY HEAD FOUGHT EVERY STEP OF WAY TO HIS HIGH POST

General Sir Henry Hughes Wilson.

The new head of Great Britain's armies who succeeded General Sir William Robertson recently won his way to his high post by almost continuous fighting. He has been in every war England has known since 1884 and, like many another English army leader, is a native of Ireland.

He was born at Currygrane, Edgeworthstown, fifty-three years ago. For his deeds of one kind or another he has won most of the decorations the king bestows.

The photo is a recent one of the new chief and shows him at the wheel of his official car.

FRENCH AMBASSADOR AND OHIO SENATOR EXTOLL WASHINGTON

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 22.—The memory of Washington was extolled by M. Jusserand, French ambassador, and Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio, in addresses delivered at a commemorative mass meeting held here today under the auspices of the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution.

"Everybody," said M. Jusserand, "knows the unanimity of feelings of all French people who ever met Washington; how, during our revolution French citizenship was bestowed on him as being 'one of the benefactors of humanity,' and how when he died the French nation went into mourning, officers wore crepe and our flags were flown at half-mast."

"To conduct oneself well is a harder task in days of gloom and anxiety. In both, Washington stands a model. He knew all the trouble which may result from delays, perhaps and mismanagement, but never thought of a patched-up peace."

Referring to the present war, M. Jusserand declared: "The fight is on. As we shall no more desist than Washington did even in his most perilous hour, the result is certain. The work must be done so that it may not have to be done again. In this we are all of us, with your enthusiasm, valor, resourcefulness and inexhaustible generosity brings us such cheer and comfort."

Senator Harding declared that the time had come to apply the maxim contained in Washington's farewell address, concerning the pernicious effects of internal dissension in a national emergency.

"In our mighty development we have added to the perils of which Washington warned," asserted the senator.

"The danger has not been in party association, but in party appeal or surrender to faction. Our growth, our diversification, our nation-wide communication, our profit-bearing selfishness—these have filled the land with organized factions, not geographical as Washington so much feared, but commercial, industrial, agricultural and professional, each seeking to promote the interests of its own, not without justification at times, but often a menace in exciting privilege and favor through the utterance of political threats. If popular government is to survive, it must grant exact justice to all men and fear none."

AMERICAN WOUNDED IN PATROL FIGHT

(Associated Press Telegram)

With the American Army in France, Feb. 22.—In a patrol fight Americans from units under instruction in the famous Chemin des Dames sector killed one German and captured another. One American was slightly wounded.

This is the first time it has been permitted to reveal the fact that new American units have entered the line. The troops have been there for some time suffering slight casualties but their presence was kept secret until it was certain that the enemy knew they were there.

Details of the patrol fight are as yet unavailable, beyond the unofficial report that the prisoner was captured single-handed by a young American from one of the New England states, who, during the engagement, dropped into a shell-hole on top of a German hiding there, and later brought him in.

The American forces entered the line on one of the darkest of nights through a shell-pitted region dotted with shell-wrecked towns. The French general commanding the sector, a hero of the Marne, greeted them as comrades-in-arms, and kissed the American flag.

BIG PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION IN METROPOLIS

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, Feb. 22.—A parade of ten thousand troops from the 77th division of the national army at Camp Upton from the distinguished feature of the Washington birthday celebration in New York.

Six thousand additional soldiers from the camp were given leaves of absence and joined with the vast throngs in what was one of the most worthy patriotic demonstrations here since the United States entered the war.

The city embued with the martial and patriotic spirit of the day out did itself in the matter of displaying the national colors, and Fifth avenue, the principal line of march for the parade, was literally a waving lane of red, white and blue.

AGREEMENT REACHED WITH SPAIN CLAIMS AMBASSADOR WILLARD

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 22.—Announcement of more detailed information was awaited today regarding an agreement reached with Spain to furnish needed supplies to the American forces in France in exchange for certain American commodities, thereby releasing much ship tonnage for other purposes.

Advices from Ambassador Willard that such an agreement had been signed in Madrid yesterday was received at the state department last night and it was made known that under the terms General Pershing will get mules, army blankets and other supplies in return for cotton, oil and other commodities from the United States.

It was not learned whether the agreement had any bearing on the rate of exchange between the two countries, which the United States has desired to adjust because of the recent depreciation of the American dollar in Spain, where it is worth about 75 cents.

TO INVESTIGATE THE PRO-GERMANISM OF REV. BRAUNSCHWEIG

(Associated Press Telegram)

Cleveland, Feb. 22.—Federal authorities in Cleveland today commenced an investigation into alleged pro-Germanism exhibited by Rev. John M. Braunschweig, 22, while he was a student in Baldwin-Wallace college at Berea. Rev. Braunschweig, a German, was arrested at Seattle, Wash., yesterday on the technical charge of trespassing on the water front. The arrest was made on orders from Washington. When arrested, the names of five hundred Germans and other records were found in his possession.

It was said today at the college that he had been very unpopular there because of his pro-German attitude and that his name had been dropped from the rolls of a student society for that reason. It was also said that he had been asked to give up a pastorate at Canal Dover, O., because of his actions.

ANOTHER CLEVELAND MURDER.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Cleveland, Feb. 22.—Officers of the Moose club and of the Bricklayers' Local Union No. 9 today were endeavoring to identify James W. Smith, who was found mysteriously murdered with a bullet in his chest early this morning in the downtown section.

Smith was apparently about 40 years old. Membership cards in the Moose club and the Bricklayers union gave his name.

DECLARES PETROGRAD TO

Advance of Hun Army is

(Associated Press Telegram)

Petrograd, Thursday, Feb. 21.—A proclamation ordering resistance to the German advance calling on all Russians to defend the fatherland and declaring Petrograd in a state of siege was issued tonight from the Smolny Institute, the Bolshevik headquarters. The proclamation was issued at the order of the People's Commissaries and is signed by Premier Lenin and Ensign Krylenko, the Bolshevik commander-in-chief.

DEFENSE TO THE DEATH
AGAINST GERMAN EMPIRE.

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Feb. 22.—"Defense to the death," against Germany is ordered in the proclamation of the Russian commissaries. Reuters, Petrograd correspondent telegraphs. The commission's appeal to the soldiers to destroy railways and provisions and compel the Bourgeois to dig trenches under penalty of death.

The German advance into Russia is not the march of a conqueror, for no where up to the present have they met any serious opposition. The comparatively rapid progress is ascribed to the fact that the Germans found a clear passage.

Special dispatches from Petrograd indicate that the invaders are making their own pace in collecting immense stores of weapons, munitions, food and other valuable property, which the disorganized Russian armies abandoned in their hurried flight. A Petrograd dispatch to the morning Post says that there is only one division of cavalry and one division of infantry in the advancing army.

Germany's ultimate object in view, of course, can only be speculated upon, but, according to the correspondent, there is nothing whatever to prevent them from reaching Petrograd if they wish for the demonization of the Russian soldiers so completely that orders to resist the invasion would be impossible of execution.

The Bolshevik capitulation to a German peace and news of the German advance was received in Petrograd in various ways. The correspondent of the Times says that profound disgust and shame was felt and uttered by serious and intelligent people and was reflected in the news-Bolshevik newspapers. A report to the Morning Post says that the sadder element of the population call for a closer relation with the allies, looking to the unification of Russia and the abandonment of the dreams of amateur statesmen.

RUSSIAN NAVY IS IN DANGER OF BEING DESTROYED

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Feb. 22.—Disorganization in the Russian navy has reached an extreme point and there is no likelihood of any order being obeyed, according to an Exchange telegraph dispatch from Petrograd. The naval authorities at Reval report that in order to save the Russian navy from the hands of the Germans it will be necessary to remove the ships at Reval and Helsingfors to Kronstadt.

This however is believed to be impossible owing to their disuse. Up to this time only submarines have been removed from these ports. The question has arisen whether to destroy the ships in Helsingfors. It is also suggested to intern them in Finland as a free and neutral state, acknowledged of Finnish neutrality having been made by the Bolsheviks are willing to withdraw the Russian Red Guards from Finland and to stop the supply of munition to the revolutionists.

The marine detachment at Abo, Finland and the Aland Islands demand immediate discharge, the dispatch adds, and the majority of the crews at Helsingfors oppose any active defense.

FINS REFUSE THE SWEDISH OFFER

Stockholm, Thursday, Feb. 21.—Sweden has suggested to several powers that diplomatic intervention be made in Petrograd to obtain the evacuation of Finland by Russian troops. Premier Eden announced in the riksdag today. Some of the powers have sent favorable answers, while others have not yet replied. The Finnish government, the premier added, had refused a Swedish offer to mediate. Nevertheless, Sweden was still ready to use her good offices.

CLARENCE GODDARD DESCRIBES A TRIP TO FRENCH CAPITAL

Mrs. Nellie Bragg of Eddy street, has received the following letter from her nephew, Clarence R. Goddard, who is serving with Co. B, U. S. Engineers, now in France:

Jan. 7, 1918.
"Somewhere in France."
Dear Grandma, Aunt and All:
Just a few lines in answer to your kind letter, written by Esther and received some time ago. I have been pretty busy since a short time before Christmas. A three-day trip to Paris at that season occupied part of my time and lots of work the most of the balance. Then, as you know, I have become a notoriously bad correspondent in the last few years. Yesterday though I quite surpassed myself by writing a twelve page letter to mother in an attempt to partly describe my Paris trip for her. I shant attempt anything so lengthy in this but will try to give you a few impressions of the city and a brief account of my good time there. It was the first time in several months that I had the privilege of spending three whole days in a real city at the same time, and of sleeping and eating in a real hotel for so long. The grand hotel du Pavillon on the Rue de l'Eschiquier in the heart of the city has been taken over by Americans. V. M. C. A. and is run especially for enlisted men on leave. I arrived at the "Gare del'Est" or station of the Eastern Railroad on Sunday, Dec. 23rd at about eleven o'clock and a walk of about fifteen minutes along two splendid boulevards placed me at the hotel. I secured a nice room, had a dandy lunch, and then started to view the city. Space forbids a lengthy description of what I saw, so will just mention a few things. The church of Notre Dame or Cathedral I should say, with its fluted towers and beautiful statues. The church of the Madeleine, its massive stone columns of Roman design and heavy bronze doors at the top of a broad flight of stone steps. The Eiffel Tower, with its slender steel structure rising like a gigantic needle point, high above every other structure in the city, and the world's theatre, are only a small sample of the wonders I viewed. Everywhere I went I was impressed by the beauty of architectural design. Nearly all the public buildings, churches, theatres, libraries, art museums, observatories, conservatories, buildings of state departmental and city government, and even the homes of the people give rich evidence of their love of the beautiful, an inherent quality of the Gaelic nature, and if that were not enough, the profusion of monuments and statues, of color of the rainbow and of broad thoroughfares lined with beautiful trimmed trees, makes that impression still more forceful. Even the manner and dress of the vast majority of the men and women speaks of a love of beauty. I do not think that anywhere in the world one will find as many women with a much natural beauty as in our own good old U. S. A. but I am quite certain that nowhere will be found women who know how to dress their beauty as neatly and well as the Parisians. But enough of that for I must hasten to tell you of the good times I had at the hotel. On Sunday evening I came in for dinner about five o'clock and found tea in progress. Quite a number of American women are in Paris and I think all of them must have been there. I enjoyed meeting and talking with some of them, and also enjoyed a fine cup of hot chocolate. After an excellent dinner a number of us went out for a short walk about the town and then I returned to write a letter home. On Monday evening after dinner they had a Christmas eve entertainment consisting of Christmas carols sung in chorus by the men, some vocal and violin solos, several short talks by "Y" secretaries and then came the big event of the evening. A monstrous fruit cake weighing 300 pounds had been shipped from New York for our Christmas dinner and was unveiled for us to look at and was then photographed. After that each soldier and sailor there was presented with a sock containing its mate, a cigarette holder, box of cigarettes, candy and nuts. Christmas night was the big event of my stay. We went in to a wonderful Christmas dinner at about 5:30. I'm sending you the menu and a short description of scene. Lobster soup, baked halibut, roast Turkey, green beans, salad, English plum pudding, chocolate ice cream, wafers, fruit cake, fruits, nuts coffee. After such a meal a good smoke and a lively chat for a half hour and we were ready to leave the dining room at 7 o'clock. Just before dinner I met a young man in the Red Cross service here and we discovered that we had a number of mutual friends in Cleveland. We went to dinner together and met at our table an aviator in the Lafayette, Escadrille and an American ambulance driver. The three were quite entertaining to me telling quite a number of good stories. The dining room was brilliantly lighted and filled with little tables each seating four. Each table covered with a snowy cloth and had a miniature Christmas tree as a centerpiece around which the shining silver and glassware was placed. The blue of the navy and the neat black and white uniforms of the waitresses made a pleasant contrast to the background of Olive Drab army uniforms. The air was filled with the sound of hearty laughter and animated.

After an hour and a half amid these pleasing surroundings my companion and I took a walk and then I went to the depot and caught a train at 8:30 for my station. With lots of love to all and best wishes for a happy New Year I will close. Expect to write you again within a week or two and until then I remain as ever your loving grandson and nephew, Clarence.

EDUCATORS ARE TO CONFER ON TRAINING FOR WAR INDUSTRIES

A call has been sent to 8,000 educators, manufacturers, labor leaders, government administrators, home economists and agriculturalists in the 48 states of the union to meet in Philadelphia, February 21st to 23rd, 1918, and join in the discussion of the National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education at the Hotel Bellevue-Stratford. Vocational education for the workers during the war and after is the main theme for discussion. Fortunately the Federal Act for Vocational Education provides money for this purpose in everyone of the 48 states.

Just because a fashionable woman wears a train is no reason why she should also wear a switch.

RED BLOODED MEN WIN OUT

They Are Always on Top.

It is a fact that red blooded men and women are at the top in every walk of life. Men and women with the driving force of red blood, rich in Iron and Phosphates do things, they get results.

Red blooded women are the heads of the happiest and most contented homes, they have the will and the desire to be real companions and helpmates.

Leadership and happiness is only for the men and women who are willing to keep their blood and nerves strengthened and nourished with Iron and Phosphates.

A prominent doctor says, "It is a crime that so many men and women lack the rich, red blood and strong steady nerve to achieve their ambitions. It is all the more so because thin, watery blood is unnecessary, as rich, red blood and strong nerves are within the grasp of everyone. Phosphated Iron makes pure blood by making new blood. It gives strength, brings color to the cheeks, increases the weight and appetite, drives away the blues and those sleepless nights, steadies and renews your nervous energy, makes you feel like a live one once again."

There must be something to it. Everyone who tries it is loud in praise of Phosphated Iron, and you have got to show people these days.

To insure physicians and their patients receiving the genuine Phosphated Iron it has been put up in capsules only. Do not allow dealers to give you pills or tablets. Insist on capsules. Evans' Drug store, and leading drug stores everywhere.

HERE IS HELP STRENGTH, "PEP" FOR LAME BACKS

Nothing Like The New Mustard Preparation, "MUS-TUR-PEP" To Scatter Congestion and Relieve Pain.

"MUS-TUR-PEP" is the finest of the fine—greaseless, rubs right in, doesn't soil linen and it is better than a liniment.

If you are bothered with Lame Back, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Pile, Headache, Neuralgia, or Stiff Neck, you must try "MUS-TUR-PEP". It's fine, it's clean, it's got the "Pep" and you'll like it. Use "MUS-TUR-PEP" also for Coughs, Chest Colds, Congestion and Inflammation.

All druggists sell, recommend and guarantee "MUS-TUR-PEP" because they know that it always pleases the customer and brings him back for more. Don't fail to get a small jar of "MUS-TUR-PEP" (the greaseless kind) from your druggist today—you may need it tomorrow.—Advertisement.

Careless Use of Soap Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulford coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulford coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

ORDERS THE RESISTANCE OF GERMANS

that the non-Bolshevik and non-socialist parties will try to re-assemble the constituent assembly with the view of appealing to the allies.

The commissioners appeal to the country also intimates that the Germans plan the capture of Petrograd. "The German generals," it says, "desire to establish their own order in Petrograd and Kiev. The republic is in the gravest danger. The duty of Russian workmen and peasants is defense to the death, of the republic, against the masses of bourgeois and imperialists of Germany."

An Exchange telegraph dispatch from Petrograd says the evacuation of Finland has been ordered by the commissioners.

In the appeal for reorganization of a defense of the revolution against Germany the council of commissioners says:

"The socialist fatherland is in danger. In order to save the country in its exhaustion from further trials of war we resigned ourselves to making immense sacrifices. Our delegates on Feb. 20 left Rostov for Dvinsk but up to the present no news from them has been received."

After stating that it is the duty of workmen and peasants to defend the republic to the death, the appeal continues:

"German militarism wishes to smother the working classes and the Ukrainian masses, to give back the land to the land owners, factories and workshops to the bankers and power to a monarchy."

Following are the points urged in the appeal:

"First—All the forces in the country in their entirety must place themselves at the service of the defense of the revolution."

"Second—All the council of workmen and soldiers' revolution organizations must enter into the compulsory defense of each position to the last drop of their blood."

"Third—Organizations on railways and the Soviets connected therewith are obliged with all their strength to check attempts of the enemy to profit by the equipment of lines of communication. In their retreat they must destroy the railways and blow up the stations. All rolling stock and locomotives must be sent eastward and into the interior of the country without delay."

"Fourth—Corn and provisions in general are placed on the same footing as valuable property when in danger of falling into the hands of the enemy and must then be destroyed without contradiction. The local soviets must see that these decisions are carried out and the responsibility falls upon their representatives."

"Fifth—Workmen and peasants of Petrograd, Kiev and all towns, villages and hamlets on the line of the new front must raise battalions to dig trenches under direction of the military specialists."

"Sixth—All members of the Bourgeois class, the women as well as the men, must enter these battalions under surveillance of the red guards and in case of resistance must be shot."

"Seventh—All institutions which offer resistance to the action of the revolution on the defensive and pass to the side of the German bourgeois or which have a tendency to profit by the invasion of the imperialistic masses in order to overthrow the authority of the soviets, must be closed. Directors of and collaborators with these institutions who are capable of work must mobilize themselves to dig trenches and engage in other defensive work."

"Eighth—Foreign agents and speculators are counted as revolutionary agitators and German spies must be shot at sight. The socialist fatherland is in danger. Long live the national social revolution."

AMERICAN STAFF WATCHING GERMANS SWEEP INTO RUSSIA

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 22.—The American general staff is watching the new German sweep into Russia with little more than academic interest, quite convinced that Russia is no longer a military factor to be considered and that the situation has little bearing for the present at least, upon the battle fronts.

Observers both here and in Russia, it is understood are satisfied as the German drive continues it will meet with more resistance. The advance the German has made the more effective would be that resistance the military experts say, since it would require great numbers of troops to maintain the German transportation lines against guerrilla warfare. Eventually they think the vast extent of Russian territory and the great population will form a more definite movement of resistance.

President, Feb. 22.—Matthew J. Bruns, president of the Boston Elevated railway, whose 4,000 employees last night voted to strike Monday night unless increased wages and other demands were granted, said today that while there had been no request for a conference the company was prepared to meet representatives of the men to discuss the possibility of preventing the threatened interruption of service. The Boston Elevated controls all of the subway, elevated and surface lines in the city and suburban lines radiating in every direction.

Although the exact demands of the strikers were not given, after the strike vote was announced, it is known that the principal demands relate to wages.

ATTEMPTED MURDER A VENGEANCE PLOT

(Associated Press Telegram)

Cleveland, Feb. 22.—Police investigating the shooting of Tony DeBrouse, 32, last night, were satisfied today that it was an attempted revenge murder. DeBrouse was shot four times by two men as he was leaving the home of a friend. Physicians say he will recover. According to police, DeBrouse has testified against several foreigners arraigned on criminal charges and police are confident it was a desire for revenge on the part of the latter that led to the shooting.

anticipated, with the advent of more favorable weather. Individual bayonet courses may be provided for the organizations.

Medical officers have given no word as to when the blanket quarantine would be lifted. Selects and officers have been hoping that it might be in time for them to get away over Washington's birthday and for Saturday and Sunday. While passes will be granted to all men who desire them, no members of the division will be permitted to go beyond Chillicothe except in case of emergency. The measles situation was somewhat worse today, 186 cases being reported. This is the largest number of cases reported for over a week.

Five additional organizations were ordered quarantined for scarlet fever today. They are: Battery D, 324th Heavy Field artillery; Company I, 330th infantry; Headquarters company, Fifth Training battalion; Company B, 324th machine gun battalion; and Battery B, 323rd Light Field artillery.

Officers and men of the 330th infantry, composed mainly of Cincinnati selects, were still on a hunt for the tallest man in Ohio and Pennsylvania to act as drum major for the regiment band. They say they want a man who is at least six feet five inches in height who is built proportionately. Men already in the service or volunteers who can fill the bill will be welcomed with open arms.

FOILED ATTEMPTED ROBBERY OF BANK

(Associated Press Telegram)

Painesville, O., Feb. 22.—An attempt was made to rob the Painesville branch of the Cleveland Trust company early this morning when two men were discovered by police trying to force the front door of the bank. Shots were exchanged, but the robbers escaped in an automobile.

ALL TRACE OF RUSSIAN COMMISSIONERS LOST

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Feb. 22.—Although the delegates sent by the Russian commission to inform the Germans officially of Russia's capitulation departed for Dvinsk on Wednesday, no news has been received from them, says an announcement made by the commissioners as forwarded in a Reuter dispatch from Petrograd. The announcement adds:

"It seems that the German government is putting off its reply and evidently is refusing peace and carrying out the wishes of the capitalists of all countries."

A Berlin dispatch received via Amsterdam last night said the Russian written confirmation of the acceptance of the German peace terms had passed the German lines.

WASHINGTON DAY AT

CAMP MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Feb. 22.—For the first time this year the training schedule of the Buckeye division was broken today for Washington's Day. There were no drills and activities that could be dispensed with were abandoned. In the afternoon in the Knights of Columbus camp hall, Governor Chas. Henderson of Alabama, W. T. Robertson, mayor of Montgomery, and Major Ralph D. Cole of Findlay, were to deliver addresses.

NINE PERSONS RUSH

TO DEATH EARLY TODAY

February, Mass., Feb. 22.—Nine persons, all members of the family of Morris Miller, lost their lives in a fire which destroyed the Miller home near here early today.

Reuben Miller, a boy of 19 who was employed on a neighboring farm was the only member of the family who escaped. The blaze was discovered by a neighbor and when firemen arrived the house was in ruins. Miller, his wife and seven children ranging in age from 20 years to a baby girl of two months, fell victims to the flames.

PREPARING A ROAD

BUILDING PROGRAM

Washington, Feb. 22.—To establish the road building program in the United States for the next year the railroad administration has opened negotiations with representatives of road building and material men's organizations to ascertain the approximate number of cars required for hauling material for necessary construction. Eventually the railroad administration is expected to assure roadmakers of some definite car supply in order that contractors may know in advance approximately what conditions they may rely.

LITTLE CHANGE TAKES PLACE ON FIGHTING FRONTS

The German advance be resisted. While this may not be significant, all previous orders in the present crisis have been issued by Trotsky and Lenin. Trotsky is reported to have cast the deciding vote in favor of accepting a German peace. Written confirmation of the acceptance of German peace terms has passed the German lines, according to Berlin, which adds that this disposes of rumors that the Lenin-Trotsky government had fallen.

In France and Italy there has been no change in the general situation on fighting fronts. Small raids and artillery duels continue, as does the aerial activity. German artillery fire has been heavy north of the Aisne and in Champagne. On the American sector the intense artillery firing continues with the American gunners doing the most damage.

Demands of Austrian socialists negotiations on the basis of President Wilson's recent message has brought the threat from the emperor or that he will dismiss parliament if the budget, which the socialists have it in their power to pass or defeat, is not given a majority. Not only are the socialists dissatisfied but the Czech, Slav and Polish deputies in the Austrian reichsrath are openly hostile to the government in its war and peace policies.

The socialists have called mass meetings to support a demand for the opening of peace negotiations with the United States.

American troops were revealed by today's dispatches as in action on a new front—the famous Chemin des Dames sector—where in a patrol fight they accounted for one German killed and brought another back to their lines a prisoner. One American was slightly wounded.

Previously it was known that forces were holding a section of the front in French Lorraine, east of St. Mihiel, and last week's reports showed American batteries in active service in the Champagne. The Chemin des Dames where they have now appeared is on the Aisne front, the furthest point west at which American troops have been reported.

This sector is well toward the left flank of the French line, the British having been reported recently to have taken over an additional sector of the front, south of St. Quentin, probably as far as La Fere where the line is crossed by the Oise, the French front now starting in the district between the Oise and the Aisne, northwest of Laon.

The British in their onward march in Palestine have entered Jericho, 14 miles northwest of Jerusalem and have further extended their advance northwest of the latter city.

Possession of Jericho gives General Allenby command of a network of high roads radiating from that town and opens the way for him to penetrate northeastward in the Dead Sea across the valley of the Jordan, to Amman, on the Damascus-Mecca railroad, between 25 and 30 miles distant.

ARMY CAMPS OBSERVE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 22.—Washington's birthday was observed in all army camps throughout the country with various exercises and the soldiers enjoyed a rest from military training. At camps where there were no formal celebrations the men engaged in holiday festivities many of them being granted leave. The commissioning camp activities made provision for entertainment in camp.

CLARENCE GODDARD DESCRIBES A TRIP TO FRENCH CAPITAL

Mrs. Nellie Bragg of Eddy street, has received the following letter from her nephew, Clarence R. Goddard, who is serving with Co. B, U. S. Engineers, now in France:

Jan. 7, 1918.
"Somewhere in France."
Dear Grandma, Aunt and All:
Just a few lines in answer to your kind letter, written by Esther and received some time ago. I have been pretty busy since a short time before Christmas. A three-day trip to Paris at that season occupied part of my time and lots of work the most of the balance. Then, as you know, I have become a notoriously bad correspondent in the last few years. Yesterday though I quite surpassed myself by writing a twelve page letter to mother in an attempt to partly describe my Paris trip for her. I shan't attempt anything so lengthy

in this but will try to give you a few impressions of the city and a brief account of my good time there. It was the first time in several months that I had the privilege of spending three whole days in a real city at the same time, and of sleeping and eating in a real hotel for so long. The grand hotel du Pavillon on the Rue de l'Esplanade in the heart of the city has been taken over by American Y. M. C. A. and is run especially for enlisted men on leave. I arrived at the "Caret de l'Est" or station of the Eastern Railroad on Sunday, Dec. 23rd at about eleven o'clock and a walk of about fifteen minutes along two splendid boulevards placed me at the hotel. I secured a nice room, had a dandy lunch, and then started to view the city. Space forbids a lengthy description of what I saw, so will just mention a few things. The church of Notre Dame or Cathedral I should say, with its fluted towers and beautiful statues. The church of the Madeleine, its massive stone columns of Roman design and heavy bronze doors at the top of a grand flight of stone steps. The Giffel Tower with its slender steel structure rising like a gigantic needle point high above every other structure in the city, and the world's theatre, are only a small sample of the wonders I viewed. Everywhere I went I was impressed by the beauty of architectural design. Nearly all the public buildings, churches, theatres, libraries, art museums, observatories, conservatories, buildings of state departmental and city government, and even the homes of the people give rich evidence of their love of the beautiful, an inherent quality of the Gaelic nature, and if that were not enough, the profusion

of monuments and statues, of color of the rainbow and of broad thoroughfares lined with beautiful trimmed trees, makes that impression still more forceful. Even the manner and dress of the vast majority of the men and women speaks of a love of beauty. I do not think that anywhere in the world one will find as many women with a much natural beauty as in our own good old U. S. A. but I am quite certain that nowhere will be found women who know how to dress their beauty as neatly and well as the Parisians. But enough of that for I must hasten to tell you of the good times I had at the hotel. On Sunday evening I came in for dinner about five o'clock and found ten in progress. Quite a number of American women are in Paris and I think all of them must have been there. I enjoyed meeting and talking with some of them and also enjoyed a fine cup of hot chocolate. After an excellent dinner a number of us went out for a short walk about the town and then I returned to write a letter home. On Monday evening after dinner they had a Christmas eve entertainment consisting of Christmas carols sung in chorus by the men, some vocal and violin solos, several short talks by "Y" secretaries and then came the big event of the evening. A monstrous fruit cake weighing 360 pounds had been shipped from New York for our Christmas dinner and was unveiled for us to look at and was then photographed. After that each soldier and sailor there was presented with a sock containing its mate, a cigarette holder, box of cigarettes, candy and nuts. Christmas night was the big event of my stay. We went in to a wonderful Christmas dinner at about 5:30. I'm sending you the menu and a short description of scene. Lobster soup, baked halibut, roast Turkey, green beans, salad, English plum pudding, chocolate ice cream, wafers, fruit cake, fruits, nuts coffee. After such a meal a good smoke and a lively chat for a half hour and we were ready to leave the dining room at 7 o'clock. Just before dinner I met a young man in the Red Cross service here and we discovered that we had a number of mutual friends in Cleveland. We went to dinner together and met at our table an aviator in the Lafayette Escadrille and an American ambulance driver. The three were quite entertaining to me telling quite a number of good stories. The dining room was brilliantly lighted and filled with little tables each seating four. Each table covered with a snowy cloth and had a miniature Christmas tree as a center piece around which the shining silver and glassware was placed. The blue of the navy and the neat black and white uniforms of the waitresses made a pleasant contrast to the background of Olive Drab army uniforms. The air was filled with the sound of hearty laughter and animated. After an hour and a half amid these pleasing surroundings my companion and I took a walk and then I went to the depot and caught a train at 8:30 for my station. With lots of love to all and best wishes for a happy New Year I will close. Expect to write you again within a week or two and until then I remain as ever your loving grandson and nephew, Clarence.

EDUCATORS ARE TO CONFER ON TRAINING FOR WAR INDUSTRIES

A call has been sent to 5,000 educators, manufacturers, labor leaders, government administrators, home economists and agriculturalists in the 48 states of the union to meet in Philadelphia, February 21st to 23d, 1918, and join in the discussion of the National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education at the Hotel Bellevue-Stratford. Vocational education for the workers during the war and after is the main theme for discussion. Fortunately the Federal Act for Vocational Education provides money for this purpose in everyone of the 48 states.

Just because a fashionable woman wears a train is no reason why she should also wear a switch.

HOW TO GET RELIEF FROM CATARRH

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness, or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 oz. of Farmint (double strength), take this home add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and 1 oz. of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful 4 times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should be open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to make, tastes pleasant and costs little. Every one who has catarrh, should give this treatment a trial. You will probably find it is just what you need. T. J. Evans—Advertisement.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

As the years go on, George Washington, father of his country, recedes into the past and seems like a shadowy figure of antiquity. The tendency with many people is to regard Abraham Lincoln as the larger of the two figures. It is true that Lincoln faced and grasped an incomparably bigger situation, and contended with far greater forces. Yet the resources back of him and at his command were infinitely greater.

Washington's greatness is seen in comparison with the pitifully meager means which he controlled. The commander of a broken force of ragged patriots, half-fed, half-clothed, poorly armed, his attempt must have seemed hopeless to the worldly wise of his time.

It was not merely the foe he faced, but the petty and sordid divisions of the forces behind him. He was the leader not of a nation, but of a group of jealous and bickering states and of a faint-hearted congress. Under any ordinary generalship, his grotesquely-equipped army would have turned tail and scattered within a year. But somehow by consummate faith in the guiding hand of Providence, by a speed of thought and action that outwitted a vastly superior foe, he won out against all human odds. So he will ever be regarded by history as one of the world's great military commanders.

It was another test of Washington's greatness that he was not drawn into the petty political feuds of his later years. He was bigger than any political party, able to see beyond and around the ordinary partisan view-point.

If we can use the marvellous science and the mighty forces enlisted in our war, with as much skill, alertness, and sound military judgment as Washington showed, we shall win this war. If we can manifest the same lofty independence of a merely partisan spirit that he should, we shall be helped still further to establish the great principles for which he contended.

The National Cannery Association has been meeting at Boston. A prominent canner, Brer Pershing, was absent on an important engagement to can the kaiser.

The Germans are now blowing about the blow they are going to strike on the west front.

ARE STILL UNSATISFIED.

(New York Herald.)
While the military masters of Germany are celebrating the peace with Bolshevik Russia, the newspapers of the empire were remarkably skeptical. By perfidy unexampled in the history of the world,

Daily History Class—Feb. 22.
1796—Congress first officially recognized Washington's birthday.

1847—Battle of Buena Vista and defeat of Santa Anna's Mexican army by American volunteers.

1848—Uprising in Paris; beginning of the revolution against Louis Philippe. The national guard united with the people.

1916—Great drive launched north of Verdun.

1917—British occupied 2½ miles of abandoned German trenches on the Somme front.

where so many people were involved. Lenin and Trotsky have practically handed Russia to the Germans. Only by withdrawing the whole population to Siberia could they have made their surrender more complete. A German press failing to recognize this situation is either staggered by the immensity of the renunciation or oppressed by fears of future developments.

As to this we have only the word of Trotsky, who, protesting that Germany and Austria hold Russian provinces by force, nevertheless refuses, in the name of the workmen and peasants for whom he speaks, to pursue a war begun "by capitalists and czars." Ignoring the most insatiable of all these he says: "We will not and we must not continue to war with Germans and Austrians—workmen and peasants like ourselves."

What would the German newspapers have? Here is a nation whose only visible leaders take their punishment and shackles lying down. Their surrender is worse than the unconditional; it is abject. They discontinue negotiation, disband their armies and throw themselves upon the mercy of "German workmen and peasants," all slavish in an autocrat's service. There has been no other such triumph, military or diplomatic, by Germany in all these years of conflict and intrigue.

LETTERS AND MORE LETTERS.

(New York Tribune.)
Space for freight on our ships is precious, goodness knows. It is just about the most precious thing we or our allies possess at the moment. But there is one form of freight so important that there should be no limit on it, no discouraging it, no attitude save that of falling to, every one of us as we can. We mean letters from home, the most precious and essential cargo our ships can carry over to France.

American boys in college and American men away on business trips are not the best correspondents in the world. They usually hate to answer letters, and so they usually hate to get them! It is taking us all some time to learn that American boys and men facing danger and death in a strange country are another story. For them an envelope from home, with a United States stamp on it and a letter, in it giving the news of the family and the friends and the home town, is just a muddy, shell-torn trench can provide. So we might guess for the thinking, so we know who have written, and now Gen. Pershing makes clear his appeal for letters and more letters.

Get the letter writing habit. Write to your relatives, friends or your friends' friends. Begin now. A soldier in an American camp is only slightly less lonely than he will be in France, and you will not be without your reward. You will learn much about our army, its wants and its needs—a letter from the front is the nearest thing to going yourself that there is. You can do your duty at home far better for the first hand knowledge letters home will give you.

GENERAL PERSHING'S PIES.

(Ohio State Journal.)
The Salvation Army is in the war, too. They maintain twelve stations at the front. Here is a paragraph from a dispatch from over there, dated Feb. 17, which speaks for itself:

On a field range in a shell-smashed building covered with tarpaulin behind the trenches three young women of the Salvation Army make "home-made" pastry and cakes for the American soldiers. I saw a bare-armed blonde cook using an empty tomato can to cut out dough for cookies a broken coffee pot for fried cakes and an old pail for pies, with a bottle for a rolling pin.

The dispatch goes on to say that these Salvation Army lasses mend clothing, darn stockings and give practical aid to soldiers without pay or the aid of press agents. Some of the Salvation Army women visited General Pershing and asked authority to work in the army. In assenting, the general said, "I have not been able to get a piece of the right kind of apple pie since I have been in France." The next day the general received from the Salvation Army lasses ten apple pies, which he greatly enjoyed and handed around and now those good women are strongly entrenched at the front.

WISCONSIN'S NEW SENATOR

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
Wisconsin gets a Republican senator in place of a Democratic one by the governor's appointment of Irvine L. Lenroot to succeed the late Paul O. Hastings in the upper branch of congress. At the same time the house loses a man who would be certain to be considered a possible candidate for speaker, if the Republicans win the next house.

Lenroot has been active in Wisconsin politics for 29 years, was speaker of the state assembly twice and leader of his delegation at Washington. It is probable that Governor Philipp could not have pleased his party better than by this selection.

The appointment makes the new senator the logical candidate for the six-year term of the next fall's election. Wisconsin of all parties should feel much satisfaction that their state will no longer be represented in the United States senate solely by Robert M. LaFollette.

Perhaps There Was Reason.
An editor received this letter from a fresh youth:

To which the editor replied:

The Advocate's ATTEMPTING IDOT

There never was a law yet made. It's a very nice word. But we don't conceive, that hit the taste exactly of every man, or every part of the community; of course, if this be a reason for opposition, no law can be executed at all without force.—George Washington.

EGG PRODUCTION COSTS MONEY.

(Farm Life.)
There is a profit in producing eggs in proportion to the care in selecting the stock and the care given them.

To feed a mature fowl of utility breeds it takes 34 pounds of feed a year. Say, at 4 cents a pound, $3.36. Hens laying 200 eggs a year will consume five pounds of feed to produce one dozen eggs, costing 20 cents for feed.
Hens laying 160 eggs a year consume six pounds of feed a dozen eggs, feed costing 24 cents a dozen eggs. Hens laying 125 eggs a year eat eight pounds of feed a dozen eggs, costing 32 cents a dozen. Hens averaging 100 eggs a year eat 10 pounds of feed a dozen eggs. Hens that lay 80 eggs a year eat 12 pounds of feed a dozen eggs, costing 48 cents a dozen. Multiply the weight of the feed by the cost a pound of feed required (which will not exceed 84 pounds) and you have the cost.

Spain Strikes Her Colors.
The report comes from Madrid that a ministerial council, met to discuss the latest sinking of a Spanish merchantman by a German submarine, has postponed any protest and has, on the contrary, issued orders that hereafter all vessels flying the Spanish flag shall restrict themselves to coastwise trade only. The incident seems so incompatible with what we had been taught to believe of the Spaniard's dignity and pride, that we may do well to postpone final judgment. What promises must have been made by the kaiser upon the assumption of a Teutonic victory!—Boston Transcript.

Work of German Propagandists.
The German propagandists, working through paid pacifists and through sympathetic parents, have been unfortunately successful in spreading the report that American soldiers in France spend most of their time in wild debauchery and prove easy victims to manhood-wrecking vices. The message of reassurance from General Pershing must prove welcome to the parents of American soldiers, for all Americans who know anything about General Pershing accept his word as 100 per cent

Did You Know.
That today is the 186th anniversary of the birth of George Washington? Washington's father died when he was twelve years old. At thirteen he wrote out for himself 110 maxims of good behavior. At sixteen he was engaged in surveying the wild territories of Virginia, camping for months in the forests and in peril from Indians. At nineteen, at the beginning of the Seven Years' War, he was appointed adjutant of the provincial troops, with the rank of major. At twenty-two he commanded a regiment against the French. At twenty-seven he married Martha Custis. It was largely through his courage, prudence, firmness and perseverance that the war of independence was brought to a successful termination. Washington was inaugurated first President of the United States April 30, 1789. He died at Mt. Vernon, December 14, 1799.

"Fine, Feelin' Fine."
There ain't no use in kickin' friend, if things don't come your way. It does no good to holler 'round, an' grumble night and day. The thing to do is curb your grief, cut out your little whine. An' when they ask you how you are, jest say, "I'm feelin' FINE."

There ain't no man alive but what is hooded to get his slap. There ain't no man that walks but what from trouble gets his rap. Go, mingle with the bunch, old boy, where all the bright lights shine. An' when they ask you how you are, jest say, "I'm feelin' FINE."

sincerity and truth. It is well to look with suspicious eyes upon those who persist in peddling tales about the physical and moral condition of the American troops in France.—Minneapolis Tribune.

Stand by Our Treaties.
Secretary Lansing's request that citizens of neutral countries who have made declarations of intentions to become citizens of the United States be exempted from the operation of the draft law, should be promptly heeded, especially where we have treaties with the mother countries, which specially exempt that class from obligation of service in an international war. What shall be done with the natives of countries that are associated with us in the great war is to be determined by other considerations. All eligible for military service should be put under compulsion to join our army of defense. This privileged status of aliens emphasizes the necessity of finding some way of preventing them from voting this fall in the 10 states whose constitution gives them the franchise.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Make It a Winner.
Soon the people will be called upon to subscribe to another great Liberty Loan. It is expected that the call will be made in March or April and that the amount to be raised will be several billion dollars. Before this great financial offensive is started the field should be cleared for action by bringing the war certificate campaign to complete success. There should be special effort to fill Montana's quota and have the campaign moving under full steam before the Liberty Loan campaign is upon us to distract to an extent the attention of the public.—Anaconda Standard.

Afraid of It.
The heaven of democracy is beginning to work in new places. The German government has issued orders to its commanders in the field to "treat as violators of the law of nations" any aviator who is caught in the act of dropping bombs on German territory. If Germany were convinced that her cause is just she would evidence no concern over screams that an enemy might drop from the clouds. Evidently the power of German militarism is breaking faster than we realize.—Los Angeles Times.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do it by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.
It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

SOCIAL EVENTS

SOCIETY EDITOR, AUTO PHONE 2312.

The members of the Harmonious Embroidery club met on Tuesday with Mrs. C. B. Keller in Hoover street. The meeting was in the form of a winter picnic and dinner was served.

The annual election of officers took place at this meeting and resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. Lulu Grandie.
First Vice President—Mrs. S. P. Kline.

Second Vice President—Mrs. J. H. Nowcomer.

Secretary—Mrs. J. E. Brunner.
Treasurer—Mrs. M. E. Davis.

Press Correspondent—Mrs. P. W. Faust.

A birthday surprise party was given on Miss Hazel Delaney in Russell avenue on Wednesday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. The hours were spent in music and games and luncheon was served the following: Betty and Mamie Scott, Dorothy Young, Alice Forgrave, Claire Belle Colville, Margaret Conour, Florence McKnight, Berenice and Ethel Collins, Hazel and Elma Delaney, Charles Fisher, Theodore Ranker, Frank Shipp, Kirk Horn, Harold Drummond, Delton Shambaugh, Russell and Roy Delaney. Miss Hazel Delaney was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Elena Delaney.

Mrs. C. W. Miller of Hudson avenue went to Camp Sherman today where she will be the guest of her husband Major C. W. Miller, and attend a dancing party to be given this evening by the officers of the 323rd Field Artillery in the Knights of Columbus building, Section R.

A delightfully interesting Lincoln's Birthday celebration was enjoyed by the members of the Whatsoever Circle of The King's Daughters, at the home of Mrs. Cary S. Legge in Hudson avenue on Thursday evening.

The Legge home was arranged with pictures and reproductions of the martyred president, and a program in which nearly every member of the circle participated was given. Many of the sayings of Lincoln, and stories and historical sketches of his life were given.

Last year on Lincoln's birthday the circle resolved to save all Lincoln pennies and these were turned in at the meeting for the benefit of the work of the circle, over $25 having accrued. The guests on the occasion of the celebration were the contributing members of the circle.

On February 22, the Whatsoever Circle of The King's Daughters will give a Hoover sale at the home of Mrs. W. H. Davis in Hudson avenue. The hours of the sale will be from 2 to 10 o'clock. Everything will be in co-operation with the economy advised by Commissioner Hoover. The odds and ends and left over will be made into many desirable articles for the bazaar and a luncheon will be served complying with the Hoover idea. Tickets of admission will be sold and Hoover cook books will be on sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrison (Dorothy Beard) were the honor guests at a dinner at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Beard Wednesday evening. The table was arranged with a profusion of cut flowers and the following were the guests: Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Upson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barnbridge, Mrs. Robert McCann of Dayton, Misses Dorothy Edmiston, Mary Sherwood Wright, Martha Fulton of Columbus, and Margery Lawhead, Lieut. John S. Fleck of Camp Sherman, Messrs. Roderic Miller, Max Norpell, R. B. White.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Ashbrook entertained with a dinner of pretty appointments at the Country Club on Thursday evening with a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrison.

The Women's Music Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John H. Franklin in West Church street. The afternoon was again devoted to the compositions of Beethoven, this being the fourth of the series and as each program has been given in its turn one could scarcely doubt that Beethoven does stand alone in the history of music.

The program for the afternoon was as follows:
Current Events—Mrs. C. Frederick Lytle.

Outline of Symphony, No. 3—Mrs. James R. Fitzgibbon.
Symphony No. 3, F Major, Op. 93, Allegretto vivace e con brio-allegro scherzando-tempo di minueto allegro vivace. Mrs. Edward Krieg, Mrs. W. A. Dorey, Mrs. George Upson, Mrs. Walter Barnbridge.

Songs—(a) The Distant Beloved. (b) The Quail. Miss Hamilton.

Sonata in D minor, Op. 31, No. 2, Tange-Allegro, Adagio Allegretto—Mrs. J. Warren Jackson.

NO MORE RHEUMATISM

Torturing Pains and Swollen Joints Vanish When Rheuma is Used.

At last a real remedy for rheumatism! And a good one it must be when T. J. Evans and good druggists everywhere sell it on the no-cure no-pay basis.

Rheumatics should hail the news with great rejoicing, for it is surely a remarkable remedy and has a record of almost unbelievable cures. Read what J. P. Oliver of Albany, Ga., says about it:

"I had sciatic rheumatism for two years, and tried every medicine offered for rheumatism. Tried many doctors, was treated at one of the best southern sanatoriums, and if I improved any I did not realize it. I am a conductor on the Central of Georgia Railroad, and had secured a pass to Hot Springs, Ark., to take treatment. About that time I saw Rheuma advertised and concluded to try it. I abandoned my trip, took three bottles, and now feel as well as ever. I am going to make everybody I see who has rheumatism try it. I would not take a hundred thousand dollars for what Rheuma has done for me. I would rather be dead than live as I was before the use of Rheuma."

If you have rheumatism in any form, don't delay—try Rheuma today. A large bottle, sufficient for two weeks' treatment, is not expensive, and your money back if it does not give you quick and joyful relief.—Advertisement 2-15-19-22

S. S. Kresge Co. surprised them with an old-fashioned bell, later presenting them with many beautiful and useful presents.

THE COURTS

Offices Closed.
All offices of the courthouse are closed today in observance of Washington's birthday.

Committed to Jail.
Ed West was placed in the county jail yesterday by Constable Emmett Forgrave, of Justice D. M. Jones' court. About a year ago, West was convicted of snaring fish in the north fork and fined $25 and costs. Arrangements were made whereby West would pay the fine and costs in weekly installments, and he has paid about $18, but for some time he has paid nothing on the account. He was given every chance to pay the balance by Justice Jones, but has made no effort to do so. He will be kept in the jail until the balance is served, which will be about two weeks.

Justice Horton's Court.
The case of the Standard Register Co. vs. Joe Annarino & Son, was heard yesterday afternoon in Justice Bert O. Horton's court, and the jury found a verdict in favor of the defendants. Annarino purchased a register from the plaintiff which was to have been delivered by a certain date, and the plaintiff failed to deliver it on the date specified. The defendants refused to pay for the register and for this reason the plaintiff filed the suit.

The defendant was represented by Attorney Fletcher S. Scott.

Common Pleas.
In the case of the State of Ohio ex rel., etc., vs. Frank Queen, a judgment of dismissal was entered. State of Ohio vs. Charles Darr, a peace warrant case. Set for hearing Wednesday morning next.

In the case of the State of Ohio vs. David Hall, indicted for seduction, under promise of marriage, the jurors found the defendant guilty. A motion for a new trial has been filed.

LONG RUN MEETING.
Rev. W. F. Harbert, pastor of the Tenth Street United Brethren church, has begun a series of meetings at Long Run United Brethren church, and will preach every night. He will also preach at Mt. Hermon, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

There will be meetings both morning and evening all next week at Long Run.

Tell your friends about it and come.

WHILE AT WAR

Women of Ohio Suffer at Home.

ST. BERNARD, OHIO.—"Five years ago, while passing through the critical time of life, I was about given up by all the doctors, but they told me that probably an operation would benefit me, so my husband called a specialist; he said I was too far gone to operate—that I had about two weeks to live."

I had been advised by a friend to try Dr. Pierce's Remedies, and as a last resort I sent for the 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Lotion Tablets.' After a faithful use of the medicines I am, after five years, a living monument to God's mercy and Dr. Pierce's Medicines.

"My daughter and I are now both taking the 'Medical Discovery' for the lungs. I have taken three bottles and the pain in my lung has ceased and the cough is gone. I intend to keep on taking it. I thank God that I heard of these medicines; the 'Discovery' is also helping my daughter." Mrs. Alice Watson, 313 Cleveland Avenue.

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO.—"I am glad to speak highly of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I used it because I needed a tonic and also had a cough. I had used other remedies, which did little good. Then I took 'Golden Medical Discovery' and it helped me to get over the cough and made my health better."—Mrs. C. S. Wilson, 715 Broadway.

"Favorite Prescription," the ever-famous remedy for ailing women, and "Golden Medical Discovery," the greatest general remedy, are both put up in liquid form, and are to be found in nearly all drug stores. They have enjoyed an immense sale for nearly 30 years, which speaks for their merit as well as the statements made by users. If not obtainable at your dealer's send $1.25 to Dr. Pierce, Ives-Lida Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and he will mail large package of either tablets."

Tomorrow—An Authentic Showing Of Lovely New Coats and Dresses

Always the first to show the new things, we invite your inspection, tomorrow, of these charming new Coats and Dresses.

THE COATS

Are the prettiest conceptions we have ever displayed. No sweat shop, shoddy garments, but strictly hand-tailored garments, fashioned by the country's foremost coat makers. The new materials are: Silvertone, Trico Velour, Delhi, Silversheen, Poret Twist, Gabardines, Cote-de-Cheval, Granite, Wool Velour, Poplin and Serge, in such shades as Poilu, Sammy, Marine, Roseate, American Beauty, Zouave, Peacock, Pawn, Quaker Grey, Mode, Buitan, Copen, Black and Navy. These garments are absolutely exclusive with this store and duplicates cannot be found in inferior qualities, at any of the so-called "cheap" stores. May we expect your attendance tomorrow?

THE DRESSES

Simple and elaborate models, styled from the most fashionable silk fabrics, in a range of shades to satisfy every taste and meet every requirement. Values are exceptionally good, due to advantageous purchases.

For Quick Disposal

ALL REMAINING PLUSH & CLOTH COATS AT HALF-PRICE AND LESS

KEEPING SOLDIERS STRONG

Early in the world-war cod liver oil was selected to fortify the health of soldiers against the rigors and exposure of camp life and to help build up enduring strength.

SCOTT'S IS THE EMULSION

that actually guarantees the pure quality of Norwegian Cod Liver Oil which is refined in our own American laboratories.

It is skillfully emulsified to promote prompt assimilation which is always difficult with the raw oil. Scott's Emulsion is famous for putting power in the blood to thwart colds, grippe, pneumonia and lung trouble. It is free from alcohol or opiates.

AMERICAN HEN WILL SOLVE THE MEAT SHORTAGE

(By Dr. Gilbert Johnston Poultry Expert and Judge.)

If you were to buy a small flock of chicks say a dozen in February, it would be desirable, because you would make sure of several points in your favor. For one you would be sure of having an early maturing pullet so that you would be getting eggs in the fall when they begin to climb in price. Second, you would be able to see early what luck you had with them. While chicks are hardy, and reasonably easy to bring up, they sometimes have a way of dying, if you are neglectful of some little things. Then you might not raise the full number you bought, but having them early, you would be able to buy a few more in March so as to replenish your stock. If you get them past the first three or four weeks you can count upon their living through. If you have to buy a few more in March, these will mature that much later than the others, and this will not be a disadvantage at all, as it will distribute the egg yield, and also you will find the early birds will quit laying first and thus you will have a longer period in which to consume your fowl as you begin to kill them off.

Another advantage of buying the chicks and rearing them from babies is that there is sure to be some of them that turn out to be cockerels, and as you will not be allowed to keep any roosters, it will mean that you will have to dispose of these as broilers, and you will not mind that. When you get the taste of one of your own home grown broilers the chances are that you will not go seeking a market at your butcher's.

It is fair to assume a twenty-five per cent loss from your chicks. That is, if you buy twenty-four chicks at least six of them will die naturally, and nothing can be done about it. Oh yes, some of the chicken men who have been at this game all our lives can cut down that loss somewhat, but I am not going to promise you that. I want to prepare you for a square deal.

There is another thing you can figure on, that of the 75 per cent, of chicks that do live, at least one half of them will prove to be cockerels. This will mean that you will have quite a few broilers for the table, and also that you will not have to pay for your full twelve pullets if you intend to keep that number. However it will be quite likely that you intend to keep that number as you go have. Eight or nine pullets will lay a raft of eggs in your back yard.

Should you, however, wish the full number you can easily pick up during the summer a few more pullets of about the same age as those you have raised.

If you are buying pullets there are a few things you should know. The weather is still inclement, they can be quite safely raised in the attic or in the cellar. You will have either one or the other, as this is not a parlor game we are starting, but one chiefly for the family with a back yard to the home.

If you are buying pullets there are certain things you will need to know of course, but I will give that at the time, but in a general way I may say that it is best to have them all of one breed, as near as possible of an age, and showing the characteristic points of development for their age. In bringing up young chicks, feeding is of the utmost importance and next warmth. I shall touch on these in the next two articles so as to prepare you well in advance because it is not wise to wait until the very moment you have the chicks before you get this information.

A FULL LIST OF "SUBSTITUTES"

The word "substitutes" is used instead of "supplements" by the Hotel Gazette in the following complete list of articles that may be used instead of those which we are asked to economize in food-saving.

I. Wheat (Wheat Flour). Cornmeal, white and yellow; oatmeal, rye, buckwheat, barley, whole wheat, graham flour, potatoes, rice, sweet potato, soy beans, peanut, kaffir, corn flour, cotton seed.

Practically all vegetables and fruits, particularly bananas, beets, corn, peas, and beans, may be used to supply the necessary starchy materials, i. e., energy food, in the diet and as a supplement or substitute for wheat bread.

II. Meat (Beef, Pork and Mutton). The following foods are perfect substitutes for meat proteins: Poultry, eggs, game, fish (possible exception of shellfish), skim milk, cottage cheese, American cheese.

The following vegetable protein foods may be considered in the light of supplements or partial substitutes for meat—all legumes: Peas, beans (navy, Lima, soy, kidney, and Brachian beans), lentils, peanuts.

III. Fat (Lard and Butter). Vegetable Fats—Commercial hardened oils, cottonseed oil, corn oil, peanut oil, olive oil, sesame oil, commercial nut-margarine.

Animal Fats—Coccolingarine. Clarified meat drippings and the fat of all poultry.

The following foods contain from 20 to 70 per cent fat and are given in the order of their fat contents: Nuts, 70 to 84 per cent (meats); coconut, chocolate, whipping cream, American cheese, cream cheese, egg yolk, cocoa, olives, soy beans.

IV. Sugar (White). Brown sugar, corn syrups (white golden and maple flavored), cane syrups, maple sugar, honey, and all dried fruits may be used as substitutes or supplements to sugar.

Ohio War Board Says

The Ohio War Board says today: Ohio faces a serious corn shortage next year unless care is exercised now in selecting seed.

Severe weather in December killed much of the soft corn of the 1917 crop. There is in Ohio enough old corn and good corn for the season's planting. Patriotic farmers should assist in getting this seed out to the farmers who need it at low prices.

No corn should be planted that is not tested. The state is arranging testing stations in various parts of the state.

ZANESVILLE MAN UNDER ARREST ON CHARGE OF ARSON

Zanesville, O., Feb. 22.—Charges with maliciously burning a farmhouse two miles east of Gilbert, last Monday night, Reinho Price, better known as Coxey Price, of this city, was placed under arrest Thursday afternoon on complaint of Deputy State Fire Marshal George W. McBee. He was quizzed for several hours in the office of Prosecuting Attorney Perry Smith last evening but refused to admit any knowledge of the fire.

Authorities are reluctant to divulge the evidence against Price, but it is said that he did not want his father-in-law, Nick Harlow, to move into the house, and burned it down the night before Harlow intended taking possession. The structure was owned by Mrs. Nancy J. Mears. It is thought Price had no connection with the destruction of two cottages at Gilbert by incendiary fires a short time ago. Deputy State Fire Marshal John Baird, of Newark, assisted Deputy McBee in the case. Price was placed in the city prison last evening.

FATHER AND SONS JOIN THE COLORS.

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 22.—Just to keep his family together, Charles E. Doran of Milan, Tenn., brought his two sons, Charles, Jr., and Donald, here yesterday and all three enlisted in the 317th Field Artillery to join another son, William.

NEW STRENGTH TO WEAK NERVES QUICKLY GIVEN

Mrs. H. M. Wilson, Wife of Former B. & O. Man of This City, Praises Nerv-Worth.

This endorser is the wife of H. M. Wilson, manager of the traffic department at the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co.'s plant, Akron, O., at one time in the B. & O. passenger department, this city. In source and character her statement is of rare value. It was recently given to Akron's Nerv-Worth druggist.

The Day Drug Co.—I have had serious nervous trouble for six years. Was very irritable and despondent and did not know what to do. Could not get restful sleep and got up of mornings feeling tired and blue. Stomach in very bad condition. Nervous indigestion. Gas formed in my stomach, affecting my heart-action until at times I thought it would quit beating. I tried the doctors and took other so-called remedies but they did me no good.

A friend of mine advised me to try Nerv-Worth, which I did AND THE VERY FIRST BOTTLE did the work and relieved me of all the above-named ailments. I am enjoying the best of health now and Nerv-Worth gets all the credit. I will always keep it in my home as the entire family are being benefited by its occasional use.

MRS. H. M. WILSON.

BOTTLE COMPANY CARRIES INSURANCE FOR ITS EMPLOYEES

Last November the American Bottle Company insured all of its Newark employees in the Equitable Life Insurance Company to the extent of one year's salary or wages. A policy was given to every employee who had been in the company's service for 60 days or longer.

This action was greatly appreciated by the men at the glass factory as it was a gift of real value. The family of H. A. Check is the first to receive a cash benefit under the new plan. Mr. Check died recently and on February 14 the proof of the death was submitted to the insurance company. Yesterday, Superintendent Carl S. Dayton received a remittance from the insurance company amounting to $1095, which he turned over to the widow. The American Bottle Company pays the premium on all of the employees' policies and in the event of death the amount of the policy is paid to the beneficiary.

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" Relieves Stomach Distress in Five Minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will sweeten a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is usually a sign of acidity of the stomach.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches or dizziness. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin helps to neutralize the excessive acid in the stomach which is causing the food fermentation and preventing proper digestion. Relief in five minutes is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to usually keep the entire family free from stomach acidity and its symptoms of indigestion, dyspepsia, sourness, gases, heartburn, and headache, for many months. It belongs in your home.—Advertisement.

25 Years Ago

Sunday.
Much has been said of motion picture fights, faked or otherwise, but the are not enough superlatives in the dictionary to describe the scrap put up by William Desmond and Robert McKim in "Master of his home," the new Triangle play featuring the first named star. Director Walter Edwards was determined to make this fight different, and the result was a clean-cut, fast and furious fistic encounter in which the first blow seemed to come from the room, and not a semi-wrestling match where the participants roll about the floor through several hundred feet of film. After Desmond landed the first punch, he picked McKim up and hurled him against a nearby desk with a force that will bring a gasp from any audience. This was not all accomplished so easily as it appears in the film, however, as McKim, although of slightly smaller build than Desmond, is very muscular and quick as a cat.
Of course, for the purpose of the story, it was necessary that Desmond land the telling punch, but after the two Triangle players got into the spirit of the thing, it took up though the scrap would be declared a draw.
The Desmond-McKim scrap is of brief duration but is fast and furious while it lasts, and the experienced first promised an exhibition that will keep them on the edge of their seats with excitement.
Alma Rueben appears in support of Wm. Desmond in his latest Triangle play, and the cast includes J. J. Dowling and Eleanor Hancock. The story is by R. Cecil Smith and directed by Walter Edwards.

ALHAMBRA
Tonight and Tomorrow.
Emily Stevens, the brilliant star of the Metro wonderplay, "Alias Mrs. Jessop," is a gifted actress who has been starred in a number of notable Metro productions and has also a record of successes on the speaking stage. Both her mother and father, Emma Madden and Robert E. Stevens, have been prominent in the history of the American stage. It was with her aunt, Mrs. Minnie Madden Fiske, that Miss Stevens made her debut on the speaking stage in "Becky Sharp." For eight years she remained with Mrs. Fiske and the association with the noted actress and the many experienced players in her company aided in Miss Stevens' stage training.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.
"The Crisis," Winston Churchill's famous novel, was the best seller of the year in which it was published, and the same supremacy in the cinematographic field is claimed for "The Crisis," the photodrama which W. N. Selig has made from the novel and which will be shown at the Alhambra next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. This remarkable example of the moving picture art stands pre-eminent because it treats impartially a most momentous and critical period of our history—the Civil War.
"The Crisis" is not an historical document in the literal sense, but the wonderfully romantic story told incorporates the history of the period and tells it more entertainingly than it could be told in a history book. The film version improves on the novel, for where incidents and characters are only described, we see them embellished and developed in a way that only motion pictures and a superb producer could supply.
A massive set has been built for the photodrama and special music written to fit the absorbing story.
The management of the Alhambra theatre takes great pleasure in announcing this wonderful production for three days, starting Sunday, Feb. 24. This picture will never shown at such prices before. We are going to show you this extraordinary production at children under two to six cents, adults 15 cents, for the three-day engagement.

AUDITORIUM
"Seven Swans" Tonight.
Even in the days when good fairies populated the land of make-believe, knitting was a popular and profitable form of outdoor sport. Take the case of the Princess Tweedledee, whose seven brothers were turned into swans by a mean old witch because they stood in the way of a wicked queen's triumph. There was only one way to restore the prices to their human shape and that was to weave for them seven shirts made of sharpest nettles—the kind that are gathered in the churchyard at midnight.
The sandman—the funny little man who rocks the world to sleep—last night—told the princess so, and she set out to weave her brothers back to life. Then there came into her life a beautiful prince, and loved her dearly and she loved him. But the sandman had told her that she must not speak a single word to a single man being until her task was done. The wicked queen plotted against the lovers and finally the beautiful princess mandated that she speak one word to him as proof of her love.
This is a sketch of the novelty in which Marguerite Clark, a good and tomboy at the Auditorium, it will prove a delight to the child, and the sauciness and whimsicality of the star will surely appeal to the older. "Are Married Policemen Safe?" helps to make up a dandy program.

"Cupid's Roundup."
The extremely interesting announcement is made that on Sunday the new William Fox production, "Cupid's Roundup," will be presented at the Auditorium theatre.
The hero of this play, Tom Mix, is a new William Fox star, who is one of the great favorites of the screen. At the head of a fine company and with a brilliant, red-blooded drama, one can not imagine anything so likely to give good entertainment as this play.
The play itself is by George Scarborough, the man who met the Kaiser, and the author of many great Broadway successes. It is a story of western life, with a thrilling love theme, and filled with stirring incidents. It is likely to be one of the features of the season at this house.
This clever western drama will be shown, together with a two-reel comedy and the Cleveland Plain Dealer Magazine.

Howe's Travel Festival.
Among the many interesting things shown in Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival, which will be at the Auditorium theatre next Monday afternoon and night, is the manner in which Chinese commercial men manage the human slaves of the Orient—the coolies. Though nominally not in bondage, they have to labor for twelve hours per day and receive as compensation one cent per hour, living in squalor in floating cities of boats. The film of China also shows exciting dragon boat racing, an odd Chinese wedding, rare interior glimpses of the Forbidden City, sacred tombs of the emperors, and many other interesting things.
In another part of the program we see an intrepid explorer go into the wilds of the northwest and capture, with the assistance of trained dogs, a wild mountain lion, while others in the entertainment are shown the Kodiak bear, the largest and most vicious of beasts in Alaska, being bagged by a daring hunter.
Refined comedy of the highest type will be afforded in the presentation of "East and West" fun at Coney Island, day and night.
Seats are now on sale for both performances.

"Rose of Blood."
After "The Rose of Blood" had been reviewed in Washington by the Committee on Public Information and by representatives of the war department, Mr. L. M. Rubel, director of the division on pictures, wrote the following letter to Winfield Sheehan, general manager of the Fox Film Corporation:
"The picture, 'The Rose of Blood,' has been reviewed by this committee and by representatives of the war department, and is released for exhibition without cuts or changes."
In Chicago Major C. L. M. Funkhouser, in his capacity of film censor, had refused to pass the film.
"The Rose of Blood" is a stirring picture portraying conditions as they exist today in scorching Russia. It depicts the efforts of the revolutionists to overthrow the czar. Theda Bara has the leading part. It gives the world famous vampire unusual opportunities to display her ability as the greatest of emotional actresses on the screen.

"The Rose of Blood," with Theda Bara, comes to the Auditorium next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mary Pickford's Next Picture.
Staged under the direction of Marshall Neilan, the youthful genius of the Arcturion organization, "Stella Maris" is confidently expected to prove Miss Pickford's greatest achievement in the cinema world.
In the new photoplay Miss Pickford portrays two characters of opposite nature, those of Stella Maris, a very wealthy though crippled child, and Unity Blake, a ragged slavey. This is the first time that Miss Pickford has ever appeared in a dual role on the screen.
This feature will be seen at the Auditorium next week.

LYRIC.
Tonight at the Lyric, The Cornell-Price Players will present a double bill; both comedies of merit, with vaudeville between the acts. This is also Country Store night, and many useful articles will be given away. On Saturday, matinee an night, the great western play, "Jesse James," the Missouri outlaw, will be presented. This play abounds in good comedy, and sensational scenes. New vaudeville between the acts.

Men and Guns Germany Gains By Russia's Surrender

When the Russian Muzhik trades his machine-gun to the Germans for a drink of vodka, as many are doing, he comes near typifying the act of his Bolshevik superiors in giving up their military power for an intoxicating dream of anarchistic liberty. Like them too, he may hit off the transaction with some fine phrase that seems to sanctify his murderous bargain.

Declaring piously that they can not continue a war with the German and Austrian workers, they release those unhappy workers for transfer to the Western front where they may soon be thrown in masses at the Allied guns with far more disastrous results to themselves than if they had remained in the quiet trenches of Poland.

What is of most concern to the American people, however, is what gain Germany has made in men and guns by Russia's unconditional surrender, and in the leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for February 23d, there is a careful examination of this phase of developments on the Eastern front, and other contingencies that may arise in the near future.

Other articles of almost equal importance in this number of "The Digest" are:

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

Hurry, Mother! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver, bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" if cross, bilious or feverish.

No matter what ails your child, a gentle thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that the little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs;" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advertisement.

WARM YOUR FEET WITH MUSTARINE

BIG BOX 25 CENTS

If your feet are cold this winter weather just one application of Bezy's Mustarine will keep them nice and warm for days.

It's the surest and quickest pain killer ever discovered, it will draw out the inflammation from your sore, tired feet in one night—it takes the agony from chilblains and is the best thing to use on frost-bitten feet.

But that isn't all, it stops backache, headache, toothache, earache and neuralgia—many times in 5 minutes. It drives away the agony from rheumatism and gout, and overnight ends cold on chest, pleurisy, bronchitis and sore throat, and never blisters.

Be sure you get Bezy's Mustarine in the yellow box—it's the original non-blistering substitute for grandmother's mustard plaster and is made of true, yellow mustard and not cheap substitutes. For sale by Evans Drug Store.—Advertisement.

CLAIMS PYORRHOEA IS EASILY CHECKED

Chemist Authorizes All Honorable Druggists to Return Money if New Formula Does Not Make Gums Strong and Healthy, and Teeth Firm.

People who have spongy, soft, sore, bleeding or receding gums or loose teeth, or have any symptoms of that dread disease, pyorrhoea, will be extremely gratified to know that first class druggists now have a prescription known as Ginginol that so speedily brings relief and stops the progress of the disease that many dentists and physicians are astonished. It is a highly concentrated, harmless and pleasant formula that anyone can easily use at home.

Ginginol is dispensed only in small, original bottles and the chemist who owns the formula publicly authorizes Evans Drug Store and all honorable druggists to return the purchase price to anyone who does not notice a decided improvement after the use of one bottle.—Advt.

EXPLAINS HOW ENLARGED VEINS CAN BE REDUCED

Often Times Veins Burst and Cause Much Suffering, Expense and Loss of Employment.

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will reduce swollen veins and bunions.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

Mr. L. G. Kimo, who was appointed Thrift stamp secretary of Flint Glass Workers' Union, No. 30, reports war savings stamp sales to members amounting to $1406. Mr. Kimo has entered heartily into the spirit of the work and naturally feels encouraged over the success he is achieving.

Within a few days the postman will deliver to every house in Newark a message from secretary of the treasury in reference to the War Savings stamps. Postmaster Mercer received about 6000 cards this morning for distribution among the homes of Newark. When you receive the card addressed "To the Head of the Home," don't throw it aside, but read every word of it, tear off the coupon, sign it, and drop it into the nearest mail box. No postage stamp is required.

The price of War Savings stamps will advance to $4.14 on March 1. Stamps may be bought for $4.13 each during the five remaining days of February, or they may be obtained any day this month for 16 Thrift stamps and 13 cents cash.

Tax listing time approaches. It is well to remember that War Savings stamps are not taxable.

The government's War Savings stamps may be registered against loss or theft at any one of four postoffices in Licking county—Newark, Granville, Pataskala or Udelia. There is no charge for registration. Up to this morning 630 registration cards were on file in the Newark postoffice alone. One may register a single $5 stamp or $1000 worth—the maximum amount one individual is allowed to hold.

To be sure, the purchase of War Savings stamps will help the government to win the war. The sale of stamps is putting cash into the United States treasury at the rate of about two million dollars a day, but aside from patriotic reasons people should buy them as an investment and for the value of cultivating the saving habit. War Savings stamps are better than money because they grow in value every month and are not taxable. They may be registered without charge and Uncle Sam promises to pay your money back with interest any time, if you give 10 days' written notice.

Miss Winifred Evans, manager of the Postal Telegraph office, South Park Place, today made application for appointment by the government as War Savings stamp agent. Miss Evans is using rubber stamp slogans on telegrams delivered here and is helping in other ways to make the war savings campaign successful.

One of the best talks given in the Thrift campaign was that by Attorney Chas. N. Moore at Roland Lodge room on Tuesday evening. The occasion was the annual observance of the foundation of the order and 400 were present. Mr. Moore gave some excellent advice on saving.

CANNING AND GARDEN CROPS ARE NEEDED

President Wilson has said, "Upon the farmers of this country rests the fate of the war and the fate of the Nation." Money, men and food are needed to win the war. The farmer's duty is to supply the latter. Certainly every farmer should have a good garden and where a canning factory is near at least a few acres of tomatoes, peas, sweet corn, or other canning crops should be planted. All kinds of canned goods are demanded by the U. S. Government for our soldiers. Every farmer should pledge himself to grow at least a few acres of these vital crops. Crop experts from the canning companies will gladly advise and help anyone who wishes to grow canner's crops. A well prepared soil, good seed or plants (usually furnished by the company), careful planting, frequent cultivation and plenty of manure or fertilizers will insure profitable crops of canner's crops.

HAUL A LOAD EACH WAY

The farmer cannot plow while the ground is frozen, and neither can he prepare the ground for next year's crops. But he can do many things which he used to put off until the time when he might have been plowing or planting. He can mend the harness, repair the barn, cut next summer's supply of wood, fix the farm tools, and do all the other odd jobs which will make him ready to take his place at the post as soon as Nature blows her whistle next spring.

He can market all of his surplus stock of corn and wheat and hay and potatoes. Sorting potatoes in the cellar is not a bad job when the thermometer is hovering around zero, but who wants to do it when the cold rains are pouring outside the window? On the return trip from town he can haul his supply of fertilizer or feed or lime. There never was a farmer who cannot remember at least one time in his life when he had to look from the drill to go to town to get more fertilizer or more seed.

No man can afford it this year to miss the chance of hauling when the roads are good. And the country roads are never quite as good for hauling as they are when covered with a good sledding snow. Any farmer who has had the painful pleasure of wallowing through a mud road when a ton seemed like a mud road, knows how much more fun it is to ramble along with two tons on a good stout pair of boots.

HEALTH CAMP RATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Health conditions in all army camps showed decided improvement during the week ending Feb. 15 and for that week there was a lower death rate in all camps than at any other time since last November.

Deaths in all camps, regular army, national guard and national army for the week totaled 177, of which 96 resulted from pneumonia.

Fewer new cases of the more serious diseases, especially pneumonia and meningitis, were reported as compared with last week.

The regulars show the highest death rate, 12.5 per 1000 per year, and their non-effective and admission rates show slight increases over the preceding week.

Of course, if nations will "stop to argue" the Yankees will get "em, most of the time.

Non-Speculative 8% and Well Secured

The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company Eight Percent Cumulative Second Preferred Stock

Exempt from personal property taxes in Ohio, and the normal Federal income tax

This new issue ($15,000,000) is preferred both as to assets and dividends. There are no outstanding bonds or mortgages. It is issued under protective restrictions which seem to provide more than ample safeguards, and the conditions of its retirement promise well for its ready marketability at all times. It is listed on the Cleveland Stock Exchange.

The Goodyear business last year was $111,000,000, with $14,000,000 of net earnings. The business has attained this volume without consolidation or merger of any kind—accomplished by able management and good business methods. Sales for the three months of the present fiscal year show an increase over last year of about 40%.

The Company has never missed a dividend—earnings over a ten-year period having averaged ten times dividend requirements on preferred stock then outstanding.

This issue is offered to the public under the permission of

The Capital Issues Committee of The Federal Reserve Board, as per the subjoined letter:

ADVISORY COMMITTEE TO THE CAPITAL
ISSUES COMMITTEE
FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD
Washington

February 5, 1918
To THE GOODYEAR TIRE & RUBBER COMPANY,
Akron, Ohio.

Referring to the proposed issue of $15,000,000 8% Cumulative Second Preferred Capital Stock of The Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, authorized by a special meeting of stockholders on January 14, 1918, after acquiring into the purpose of the issue above described, we are of opinion that the sale of and the stock is not incompatible with the interests of the United States. This signing constitutes no approval of such issue as regards its merits, security or legality in any respect.

The foregoing opinion applies to $15,000,000 shares out of the total amount of $25,000,000 shares, it being understood that the remaining $10,000,000 shares are not to be offered at this time and will not be offered without further submission to this committee.

In any public offer or advertisement of the said issue this letter must be incorporated in full.

Card of Thanks.
 While our hearts are filled with sorrow and grief we are not unmin-ded of many acts of kindness bestowed upon us by relatives and friends
 during the sad hour of our bereavement in the sudden loss of my beloved wife Flossie L. Weisheit. We want to thank Rev. A. B. Cox for his consoling words, also the choir
 for the music rendered, many thanks to the friends for the beautiful floral offerings, also the young ladies that were pallbearers for their kind favor in attending. Especially do we thank Mr. Bradley for his work in which he conducted the funeral all of this will ever be held in grateful remembrance. Husband A. J. W.

 Fourth street, received word this morning of the death of his brother, Winfield Marple, a retired shoe-maker of Gratiot, O. 2-22-d-17*

Abraham Schonberg.

The many friends of M. Schonberg, Hudson avenue, will be pained to learn of the death of his brother,
 Abraham Schonberg, of Cleveland.
 Mr. Schonberg was at his brother's bedside at the time of his death.
 Julius Schonberg and A. H. Wiseman left last night for Cleveland to attend the funeral, which was held this morning.

Mrs. Kathryn Thompson.

Mrs. Kathryn Thompson, 36, died at her home, 156 Webb street, Thursday evening at 6 o'clock. Mrs.
 Thompson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Hoffer, 305 Barkley avenue. Besides her husband, J.
 Thompson, and parents, she is survived by three children: Walter, Frank and Lewis; eight sisters, and six brothers.

The funeral services will be held
 Saturday at 2 o'clock from the home.
 Interment in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Funeral of Alice Janet Tordella.

The body of Alice Janet Tordella, 17-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tordella of Garrett, Ind., arrived in the city this morning and was taken to the home of the grandmother, Mrs. W. P. Young, North Fourth street.

Services will be held at St. Francis de Sales church, Saturday morning at 8 o'clock, and burial will be made in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

Death of Father.

Mrs. P. E. Andrews, Maple avenue, received word today that her father, J. R. Wood, had died at his home in Desoto, Mo. Mrs. Andrews will be unable to attend the funeral owing to the illness of her husband.

Miss Winifred Banks.

Miss Winifred Banks died at 2:30 o'clock this morning at her home in Mary Ann township. She was born March 14, 1876. The deceased is survived by her father, Robert Banks, and three sisters: Mrs. Lida
 Moats, Mrs. Mary Stevens and Mrs.
 Emma Maybury of Newark, and two brothers: Robert and Mark Banks of Mary Ann township.

The funeral services will be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Rocky Fork church.

Perry W. Klink.

Perry W. Klink, son of John G.
 and Mary Wisely Klink, was born February 15, 1855, and departed this life at his home in Licking county, near Kinkersville, February 19, 1918, aged 63 years and 4 days.
 On the third day of July, 1878,
 Mr. Klink and Miss Ida Ricketts were joined in the bonds of holy matrimony. To them were born two daughters. Mrs. Vera Applegate, living on a part of the home-farm,
 and Mrs. Mabel Bope of Canton, O.
 There remain to suffer their loss the wife, two daughters, five grand-children, one half-brother, and a large circle of relatives and friends. One sister, two half-brothers, and one grandchild preceded him in death.

Twenty-nine years ago he united with the Fletcher Chapel Methodist Episcopal church, and retained his membership until the close of his life. He was also a member of the Masonic lodge at Millersport, O. Mr.
 Klink was a good and valuable citizen, and was held in proper esteem
 by those who knew him best.

In recent years because of afflic-tion, he was not as rugged as formerly, and was thus deprived many privileges that he would otherwise have enjoyed. But he loved his home most dearly, and found the greatest pleasure and even delight in doing all within his power for the comfort of those who were nearest him.
 Their slightest wish became his highest pride. He looked carefully after all the home interests, and managed his business affairs with care and success.

In the death of Mr. Klink the family suffers an irreparable loss, the community a kind friend and a good citizen, the church a long-time supporter, and the fraternity an active and capable member.

The funeral services were conducted at his late home, Thursday, February 21, at 1 p. m. by the pastor of the church, Rev. W. H. Mitchell, together with the officers of the Masonic lodge of Millersport. The interment was made in the Kinkersville cemetery. Beautiful and appropriate music was rendered by three young ladies of Kinkersville Methodist Episcopal church. Miss Louise Em-wele presided at the piano. Mrs. Hattie White sang soprano, and Miss Clema Davy sang the alto.

Death of Child.

Emerson J. Hoskinson, aged 1 year, 11 months and 24 days, died at the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hoskinson at Hebron, at 11:30 o'clock Friday morning. Death resulted from a complication of ailments. Surviving are the parents, three brothers, Leonard, Reed and Louis, and three sisters, Ione, Grace and Esther.

The funeral will be held at 1:30 o'clock Sunday, Rev. P. D. White officiating. Interment will be made in the Hebron cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

The family of the late Perry W.
 Klink wish hereby to express their appreciation for all kindness and sympathy shown by neighbors and friends during his illness and death.
 Mrs. Ida Klink and Children.

George Devore.

Word has been received of the death of George Devore, aged 80, at Steubenville, O. Up to recent years the deceased lived all his life near Black Hand. The remains will be shipped to Toboso, E-turday, and the interment will be made Saturday morning in the Hanover cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation of kindness and sympathy shown us by our many friends

Milady's Boudoir

Sleepless Nights.

We have probably all experienced nerve-racking nights when the god, Morpheus, refuses to visit us and bear us away to the land of refreshing slumber. There is always the nervous irritability day following the night spent in seeking the required sleep which evades us. Unless there is some particular reason for it no one should find difficulty in obtaining seven or eight hours of peaceful unconsciousness each night.

A glass of warm milk or a cup of hot cocoa drunk at night just before going to bed is very soothing to the nerves and sometimes serves as a definite sleeping potion, as an entirely empty stomach often causes sleeplessness. Keeping the feet warm in bed is another little remedy surely open to all, for it does not require much to know that cold feet means that the blood is in the head and this must be drawn away before sleep can come.

In extreme cases of wakefulness,
 it is often a good thing to take a hot footbath just before going to bed and the feet can be rubbed afterward with turpentine which will increase the warmth and pleasant tingle.

As to the bath, it cannot be given too much importance where the health and comfort of the anemic women are involved. It is absolutely necessary to keep the pores of the skin open for the nerves to be soothed, as the greater part of the body's breathing is done through them. If a hot bath at night promoted wakefulness, it had better be taken in the day, but if it can be taken without this effect, then all the better, for it will be still another aid toward sleep. But remember always, that the anemic requires warm water, and as soap is a tonic in its effect on the skin, don't be afraid to use it. So remember, that in order to be a wakeful beauty one must also be a sleepless beauty.

Our Boys and Girls

To often is serious skin trouble
 traced to an infected bathtub,
 a washcloth that is not entirely clean and dry, and towels that are not properly laundered. The tub should be carefully scrubbed and used for baby alone. Do not put soiled diapers in it to soak. The washcloths of surgeons lint should be boiled and his towels used only once between boilings. The soiled diapers can be kept in a bucket, half filled with water and covered. They should be washed each day in warm water with a good soap. Frequently boil them and dry in the sun when possible.
 You should be very careful of the food given baby after weaning. Between 10 and 12 months it should have some simple, soft food, such as junket and the gruel from oatmeal and other soft cereals. Baked potato is very good if properly prepared.
 Butter and cream should be added.
 The juice from a piece of boiled beef is excellent. Broths made from beef, mutton or chicken should be given with toasted, stale bread.
 About three ounces at a time is about the correct amount for a baby over 12 months' old.

Every Day Etiquette

"When one is eating with the right hand, should the left hand be kept in the lap under the table?" asked Carl.

"Yes, for it shows a lack of poise for one to be handling the table utensils unnecessarily," replied his aunt.

An Eye to Trade.

He had been fishing patiently for several hours without a bite when a small urchin strolled up.

"Any luck, mister?" he called out.
 "Run away, boy," growled the angler,
 in gruff tones.

"No offense, sir," said the boy, as he walked away. "Only I just wanted to say that my father keeps a fish shop down to the right, sir."—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

An Added Burden.

A small boy who had been in the habit of leaving food on his plate was warned that Mr. Hoover would not approve of it.
 He meditatively replied: "I've always had to mind daddy and mother and Aunt Mary and God, and now here comes along Mr. Hoover."

NEW GERARD BOOK IS REAL STORY OF KAISER'S LUNACY

Ambassador Gerard, United States envoy to Berlin until war was declared, has written a fascinatingly interesting new book on his experiences in Berlin, under the title of "Face to Face With Kaiserism." In this book, which will be of vital interest to every American, Mr. Gerard relates many things that could not be properly told when his first book, "My Four Years in Germany," was written.

The Kaiser is revealed as he actually is in real life, not as he wishes the world to see him. There is a wealth of interesting detail concerning the All-Highest's daily affairs. German propaganda, or "poison gas" as he calls it, is exposed at length, as are the secret aims of Germany. Copies of confidential reports to President Wilson and of conversations with high German officials throw a strong light on German war methods.

The book, never before published, will be printed in generous installments in the Cleveland Sunday Leader, "the greatest Sunday paper in America," and the Cleveland News commencing next Sunday, February 24.

Appearing now in the new Weekly Magazine of the War, a part of The Sunday Leader, is Brand Whitlock's Own Story of Belgium, which will rank with Gerard's new book as two of the greatest documents of the world war.

PATRIOTISM AND COAL

Did you ever stop to think that buying motor truck coal would help win the war? Every truck load of coal that is hauled into Newark comes from a mine that is far distant from any railroad siding and is available only through the medium of the motor truck.

Five truck loads release one railroad car that may be speeded on to seacoast and loaded on a transport or supply ship. This one car load may help a transport that carries your boy to outspeed a treacherous submarine.

Phone your order for next winter's coal to C. A. McNeal, Auto. 1549 and make patriotism profitable. The price will be higher before long. Coal is selling at $30 a ton in Belgium and $140 in Italy. We are in the same war. 2-22-d-11

My policy will be strictly cash and no delivery. This will give the purchaser the greatest advantage in economy. E. F. White, 2-22-d-11" Corner Main and Dewey.

FOLLOWS HUSBAND TWO DAYS AFTER HE PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Ida Denman Green, 59, died at her home, 210 Granville street, Thursday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock after a few hours' illness of apoplexy. The deceased was twice married, her first husband, George Frost died about 20 years ago. She was later married to George Green and they have made Newark their home for the past sixteen years. She is survived by two daughters, Eleanor and Ethel Frost of Phoenix, Arizona and one son Edwin Green of the home. Her death is doubly sad as her husband died just two days before.

The body will be placed in the vault in Cedar Hill cemetery awaiting the funeral services will be held at Smith's chapel north of Hanover near her former home, and the interment will be made in the adjoining cemetery.

WOMEN EXERCISE RIGHTS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, Feb. 22.—Women enfranchised at the November election today are exercising their first rights as voters by registering for a special election on March 5 in four congressional districts of the city. In each there is a vacancy caused by the resignation of a Democratic congressman.

Women working under the direction of election district captains of the city suffrage party have been assigned to each registration precinct to urge every woman to enroll with the party of her choice.

OHIO BRIEFS

Findlay—The First Presbyterian church has untitled a service flag containing 31 stars, one for each representative the church has in the army.

Findlay—Vanue farmers have placed themselves on record as favoring a county agent and the absolute prevention in making and sale of any kind of intoxicating liquors, at their annual institute just closed.

Findlay—Farmers are saying that the wheat of Hancock county has passed through the hard winter in a reasonable shape. If only a blanket of snow would cover it for two weeks more, they say, it would improve its condition very much and make it a big crop.

Coshocton—Rev. William E. Hunt, D. D., for 45 years pastor of First Presbyterian church here, will celebrate his eighty-fifth birthday anniversary Sunday. Rev. Mr. Hunt has been a resident of Coshocton for 62 years.

Fostoria—When his team became unmanageable and dashed in front of a fast train, John Coleman, farmer, aged 33, was instantly killed.

Marysville—Issa Tanimura, a special commissioner of the Japanese government, who is in the United States to investigate sheep breeds and conditions for his government, has arrived in Marysville to inspect a number of Union county flocks.

Marysville—Miss Adda D. May, aged 46, graduate of Otterbein University and of Bonebrake Theological Seminary, Dayton, and at one time deaconess at Muncie, Ind., is dead at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hughes.

Fostoria—The Harter flour mills were closed here yesterday for a period of several weeks, having ground their government allotment of wheat.

Marion—The body of an unidentified man of middle age was found frozen in a cornfield near here yesterday. He had been dead several weeks.

Galion—Considering the name too German, council unanimously changed Berlin street to Crewe avenue, honoring the memory of Ralph Crewe, the first Galion boy to die of wounds contracted in battle on French soil.

Coshocton—The Citizens and Bell Telephone companies of Coshocton expect to complete the county and city merger by April 1, providing the state utilities commission indorse the plans.

OHIO MERCHANTS CLOSE CONFERENCE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, Feb. 22.—The second community conference of Ohio merchants and business men opened here today in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium. A number of addresses were given at both the morning and afternoon sessions, and complimentary luncheons were held at noon.

General discussions on marketing and merchandising problems brought on by the war were held.

Principal speakers today were: Carl H. Fast, expert in retail publicity, sales and credit; Ellis J. Howland of the New York Journal of Commerce; E. B. Moon, farm magazine man; and Sidney S. Wilson, president of the Cleveland Advertising club.

RHEUMATISM SO BAD CONFINED TO HER BED

Tried Remedy After Remedy and Only After Almost Giving Up Hope Heard of Acid Iron Mineral

Third Day Product of Great Ore Bed Began Showing Results

Few readers are troubled with rheumatism so badly that they are confined to bed, but many a man is only half husband and many a woman is only half wife because rheumatism keeps them in a fret and grinch all day long. Rubbing won't do any permanent good and since the discovery of a medicine iron ore bed buried away for centuries down in Mississippi, leads the way how to quick relief if thousands of tests are to be trusted. Where is the man or woman who shouldn't use it? Not like radium, which is beyond the reach of all but the rich, this natural product is cheap. A twelve ounce bottle, highly concentrated compound may be secured at most any drug store. Read what one user says.

"I heard of Acid Iron Mineral being a wonderful rheumatism cure and took it, and it did me so much good so quickly I wish I could shout its praises from the house tops," declares Mrs. S. H. Fetterly, of West Point, Va.

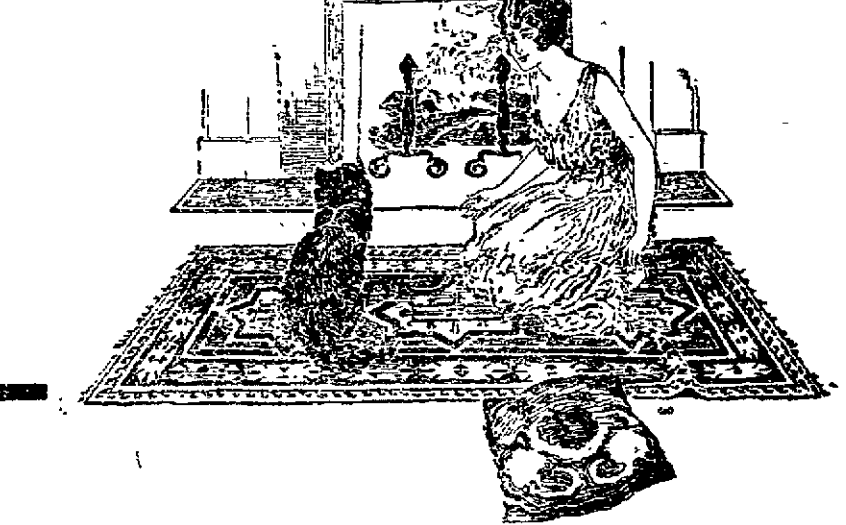

"I suffered from rheumatism in various forms for more than two years and would be confined to my bed for weeks at a time and suffered untold torture and agony. I tried remedy after remedy with but little or no result and was almost in despair when I heard of your wonderful 'A-I-M' and sent for a bottle and before the first bottle was gone I felt like another person. It began relieving me by leaps and bounds after the third day and I steadily kept on improving until now I can't say enough praise of it and wish every rheumatic sufferer would take it."

Note:—Up until the discovery of the ore from which Acid Iron Mineral is made, tinctures and extracts of iron were used but they injured the teeth and caused all sorts of complications. Now this medicinal preparation is available and harmless, yet powerful and may be taken at home there isn't a man or woman living who may be suffering with rheumatism who cannot wisely start taking Acid Iron Mineral. Local druggists have it.—Advertisement.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Patriotism and pathos, love of country and of kin, are appealingly manifested in an extract from the letter of a young soldier that is given in the Galesville, Wisconsin, Republican. Writing to his younger brother, who had stayed at home with their widowed mother, he said: "Don't think I enlisted because I did not want to help you in caring for mother. You know both of us have the spirit that every loyal American should have—our country first. While I am in the army, learning to do my bit, you are doing just as much as I, and you will be blessed for it."

It's just like this: I am fighting for our country and you are taking care of mother, and the two important things are our country and our mother. So it is up to us to do it. By this I don't mean that you are to bear all the expense, for I am going to send you all I can. You stay close to mother now, and, if the good Lord wills it, I will come back, and then you can go out into the
